BACKSTORY

CWs: ||Decapitation||

Elizabeth Kirby, or simply Just Kirby, is an Irish immigrant who used to be a successful alt model in Europe. A ||near death experience|| from a rival led to the discovery of her odd stone like powers. She had nearly been ||decapitated|| by a rival, which simply just cracked her neck- like rock. It scarred thickly like veins in marble- something in which has Kirby wear a thick choker at all times to cover it.

Kirby came to America in hopes to have a new life, but only tumbled into poverty and trouble. She's a punk, very outspoken and has a resting bitch face, almost as permanent as her wireless headphones she always keeps around her neck.
