

COLORADO

Commission for the Deaf,
Hard of Hearing, and DeafBlind

DeafBlind Advisory Council (DBAC) Vacancies

Seeking One Representative: Deaf/Low Vision Individual

The DeafBlind Advisory Council is a seven-member advisory council that advises the Colorado Commission for the Deaf, Hard of Hearing, and DeafBlind regarding the needs and challenges of the DeafBlind community. Members serve four-year terms. Each member represents one of the following communities: deaf and blind; deaf and low vision; hard of hearing and blind; hard of hearing and low vision; latent deafblind; professional working with the deafblind community; and/or parent of a deafblind child.

Currently, one position is vacant: Deaf/Low Vision.

The DBAC is seeking enthusiastic and committed individuals to fill the last position. If you are interested in filling one of those two vacancies, please complete this application.

Link: Apply to serve on the DBAC (Google Form)

DBAC members are compensated for their time and effort and their travel expenses per the DBAC Member Compensation Policy (Google Document).

Duties include, but are not limited to:

- Attending and participating in bimonthly DBAC meetings - up to six meetings per year and two hours for each meeting.
- Attending up to two DBAC subcommittee meetings per fiscal year.
- Preparing for DBAC meetings.
- Becoming familiar with the needs of your specific constituency.
- Representing the DBAC before the public, commission, businesses, and community.

For more information, please visit the CCDHHDB webpage or contact us at 720-457-3679 or email office.ccdhhdb@state.co.us.