STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES AFTER COMMITTING TO A COLLEGE OR UNIVERSITY

For recordkeeping purposes:

- Update Scoir with the admission decision for each school to which you applied*
- Note any schools you withdrew your application from or to which you never applied*
- Let your school counselor know... we're invested in your future!

Additionally, the National Association of College Admissions Counselors (NACAC) cautions students to:

- Notify each college or university that accepts you whether you are accepting or rejecting its offer. You should make these notifications as soon as you have heard from all the colleges to which you have applied or by May 1st, whichever is earlier. Also, if you are accepted under an early decision plan that requires you to attend that institution, you must withdraw the applications submitted to other colleges or universities at the time of that acceptance and make no additional applications. If you are an early decision candidate and are seeking financial aid, the previously mentioned withdrawal of other applications presumes you have received notification about financial aid.
- Confirm your intention to enroll and submit a deposit, if required, to only one college or university by their required notification date, usually May 1st. If you are put on a waiting list by a college or university and are later admitted by that institution, you may accept the offer and send a deposit. However, you must immediately notify any other college or university where you previously indicated your intention to enroll.

*If you have any difficulty noting the results in Scoir, just email your counselor for assistance!
