

Thornridge's Petting Zoo - Holiday Issue

Well, if it isn't your new favorite cat, Maki! Maki belongs to Mary-Tina Vrehas, an English and Journalism teacher at Thornridge High School. Maki loves treats; his favorite is Turkey-flavored Temptations. This cat also loves to sleep, and napping on furry blankets is what he enjoys most.

Maki's personality doesn't stop there as he loves to play hide n' seek, too, and get into the holidays just like us. During Christmas, he adores the Christmas tree- whether playing with its decorations or hiding under the tree, it's Maki's go-to right now. Maki knows how to play dress up, too. He's an IU Hoosier Cowboy one day, a vampire or banana the next! Maki is down bad for fashion, am I right?

What else is there about Maki? Oh, Maki loves the outdoors too, as rolling around on the patio is his favorite! What he loves the most, however, is sitting around with Ms. Vrehas and just vibing when she comes home from school.

Maki is just the type of animal you need when you're looking for both a play buddy and a chill buddy. Merry Christmas to Maki and to all TR furbabies across Falcon Nation!
