The background is one of the palette colors several shades lighter. The same brain picture included on slide 1.7 will be included at the top of the slide, centered. The brain pic is formatted to a circle shape. A donut shape filled with a color from the brain pic is centered on the slide. The lines of the donut are thick and use another palette color.	Congratulations!	Mindset is defined as the set of attitudes held by someone.	The next and prev buttons are restricted until the audio ends on the layer. Custom Exit Course button exits users from the course. The donut shape wheels in and the duration is set to 5 seconds.

The word "Congratulations" is centered inside of the donut shape in bolded black font. Custom Exit Course button that uses a palette color is in the bottom right corner of the slide.
