

Summer 2026 | Connecticut Collegiate Baseball League (CCBL) Teams

The following internship positions will be supporting the West Haven Sailors, Waterbury Silverbacks, and Hamden Miners. These teams are part of the Connecticut Collegiate Baseball League (CCBL).

Apply via email (westhavensailors@gmail.com, hamdenminers@gmail.com, or waterburysilverbacks@gmail.com)

Internship Descriptions:

Game Day Operations Intern

Baseball Analytics Intern

Social Media Intern

Website Specialist Intern

Sports Writer Intern

Photography Intern

1. Game Day Operations Intern

About the Role:

Join our summer baseball organization as a Game Day Operations Intern supporting three teams in the Connecticut Collegiate Baseball League (CCBL). This role is fully in-person and is ideal for interns located in Connecticut.

You will be responsible for running key game-day operations, including scoreboard, music, and video setup, helping ensure a smooth and professional experience for players, coaches, and fans.

Key Responsibilities

- Operate the scoreboard during home games
- Manage music during home games
- Set up and take down video/filming equipment
- Support staff with other game-day operational tasks as needed
- Attend all home games in Waterbury and West Haven, with occasional away games if video coverage is needed

Location & Availability

- Connecticut-based, primarily home games in Waterbury and West Haven
- Games are typically on weekday evenings, occasional weekends; doubleheaders may extend evening hours

What We're Looking For

- Interest in baseball and sports operations
- Comfortable handling equipment and technical tasks
- Organized, reliable, and able to manage responsibilities independently (with support available)
- Strong communication and teamwork skills

Internship Details

- Unpaid internship, intended for academic credit
- Summer 2026 – mid-May through end of July (possibly into the first week of August)

Why Join Our Team?

- Gain hands-on experience managing game-day operations for three summer collegiate baseball teams
- Work closely with staff and learn how a baseball organization runs operations on and off the field
- Build your resume in sports management and event operations
- Contribute to a smooth, professional, and enjoyable experience for players and fans

Application: Please submit a resume; cover letter optional but encouraged.

2. Baseball Analytics Intern

About the Role:

Join our summer baseball organization as a Baseball Analytics Intern supporting three teams in the Connecticut Collegiate Baseball League (CCBL). We are seeking two Baseball Analytics Interns to support player evaluation and team analysis. This role is primarily remote, with occasional in-person game attendance for interns located in Connecticut when coverage is needed.

You will work closely with our staff to generate insights that help improve player performance and team strategy, while gaining hands-on experience in a summer collegiate baseball environment.

Key Responsibilities

- Create scouting reports and player reports for pitchers and position players
- Pull and organize data from GameChanger
- Maintain organized analytics files using GoogleDrive
- Support staff with player evaluation materials
- Attend a limited number of games if located in Connecticut and coverage is needed

Location & Availability

- Remote or Connecticut-based
- Flexible schedule tied to game activity
- In-person game attendance may be required for CT-based interns as needed

What We're Looking For

- Strong knowledge of baseball
- Interest in baseball analytics and player evaluation
- Experience with or willingness to learn GameChanger
- Comfortable using GoogleDrive
- Strong communication and teamwork skills
- Organized, detail-oriented, and able to manage responsibilities independently (with support available)

Internship Details

- Unpaid internship, intended for academic credit

- Summer 2026 – mid-May through end of July (possibly into the first week of August due to rainouts)

Why Join Our Team?

- Gain hands-on experience in summer collegiate baseball analytics
- Work closely with knowledgeable staff and build your professional network
- Contribute to player development and team success
- Build your resume in baseball analytics and sports management

Application: Please submit a resume, cover letter optional but encouraged.

3. Social Media Intern

About the Role:

Join our summer baseball organization as a Social Media Intern supporting three teams in the Connecticut Collegiate Baseball League (CCBL). This role is primarily remote, with occasional in-person game attendance for interns located in Connecticut to post live updates during games or cover team activities.

You will play a key role in sharing team highlights, game results, and player features while gaining hands-on experience in sports social media management.

Key Responsibilities

- Create and schedule posts for Instagram and X (Twitter)
- Design graphics and visuals using Canva
- Produce video clips and highlights for social media
- Post live updates during games
- Share game day results and recap content
- Organize and manage media assets in GoogleDrive
- Collaborate with staff on social media strategy and content planning
- Attend a limited number of games if located in Connecticut and coverage is needed

Location & Availability

- Remote or Connecticut-based
- Flexible schedule tied to game activity
- In-person game attendance may be required for CT-based interns as needed

What We're Looking For

- Strong knowledge of baseball and passion for sports content
- Familiarity with Instagram, X (Twitter), and Canva
- Experience with GoogleDrive
- Portfolio of past social media or graphic work preferred
- Strong communication and teamwork skills
- Organized, detail-oriented, and able to manage responsibilities independently (with support available)

Internship Details

- Unpaid internship, intended for academic credit

- Summer 2026 – mid-May through end of July (possibly into the first week of August due to rainouts)

Why Join Our Team?

- Gain hands-on experience managing social media for three summer collegiate baseball teams
- Work closely with staff and build your professional network
- Share team highlights, game results, and player stories with a growing audience
- Build your resume in sports content creation and social media management

Application: Please submit a resume and portfolio of Canva/graphic work; cover letter optional but encouraged.

4. Website Specialist Intern

About the Role:

Join our summer baseball organization as a Web Specialist Intern supporting three teams in the Connecticut Collegiate Baseball League (CCBL). This role is primarily remote, with occasional in-person game attendance for interns located in Connecticut if coverage is needed.

You will help maintain and update team websites, ensuring schedules, rosters, and media are current and visually appealing.

Key Responsibilities

- Update team schedules and rosters on websites using Canva and Hostinger
- Upload images and graphics from Canva to team websites
- Make minor roster edits as needed
- Organize and manage media assets in Google Drive
- Collaborate with staff to ensure websites reflect current team information
- Attend a limited number of games if located in Connecticut and coverage is needed
- Upload and format articles on team websites

Location & Availability

- Remote or Connecticut-based
- Flexible schedule tied to game activity
- In-person game attendance may be required for CT-based interns as needed

What We're Looking For

- Comfortable using CMS platforms and website editing tools (Canva, Hostinger)
- Familiarity with GameChanger
- Strong attention to detail and organizational skills
- Knowledge of baseball is desired
- Strong communication and teamwork skills
- Able to manage responsibilities independently (with support available)

Internship Details

- Unpaid internship, intended for academic credit
- Summer 2026 – mid-May through end of July (possibly into the first week of August due to rainouts)

Why Join Our Team?

- Gain hands-on experience maintaining and updating three summer collegiate baseball team websites
- Work closely with staff and build your professional network
- Support the team by ensuring schedules, rosters, and media are accurate and engaging
- Build your resume in website management and sports operations

Application: Please submit a resume; cover letter optional but encouraged.

5. Sports Writer Intern

About the Role:

Join our summer baseball organization as a Sports Writer Intern supporting three teams in the Connecticut Collegiate Baseball League (CCBL). This role is primarily remote, with occasional in-person game attendance for interns located in Connecticut to cover games or gather content as needed.

You will write game recaps, player highlights, and other feature stories to help share the team's progress and successes throughout the season.

Key Responsibilities

- Write post-game recaps and player highlight articles
- Cover special player stories or team events as assigned
- Organize and store articles in Google Drive (Google docs)
- Attend a limited number of games if located in Connecticut and coverage is needed

Location & Availability

- Remote or Connecticut-based
- Flexible schedule tied to game activity
- In-person game attendance may be required for CT-based interns as needed

What We're Looking For

- Strong knowledge of baseball
- Excellent writing skills, ideally with sports writing experience
- Familiarity with Google Drive and GameChanger
- Strong communication and teamwork skills
- Organized, detail-oriented, and able to manage responsibilities independently (with support available)
- Portfolio of past writing samples preferred

Internship Details

- Unpaid internship, intended for academic credit
- Summer 2026 – mid-May through end of July (possibly into the first week of August due to rainouts)

Why Join Our Team?

- Gain hands-on experience writing for three summer collegiate baseball teams
- Work closely with staff and build your professional network
- Contribute to sharing team stories, game results, and player development
- Build your resume in sports writing and content creation

Application: Please submit a resume and portfolio of past work; cover letter optional but encouraged.

6. Photography Intern

About the Role:

Join our summer baseball organization as a Photographer Intern supporting three teams in the Connecticut Collegiate Baseball League (CCBL). This role is fully in-person and is ideal for interns located in Connecticut.

You will capture game action and team moments, helping us document the season and provide media for social channels, websites, and player highlights.

Key Responsibilities

- Photograph home games in Waterbury and West Haven, capturing player action and key moments
- Organize and manage photos in Google Drive
- Coordinate with staff to ensure timely delivery of images for social media
- Attend occasional away games if coverage is needed

Location & Availability

- Connecticut-based, primarily attending home games in Waterbury and West Haven
- Games are typically on weekday evenings, occasional weekends; doubleheaders may extend evening hours

What We're Looking For

- Must have their own camera/equipment
- Strong knowledge of baseball
- Experience with sports photography preferred
- Organized, reliable, and able to manage responsibilities independently (with support available)
- Strong communication and teamwork skills

Internship Details

- Unpaid internship, intended for academic credit
- Summer 2026 – mid-May through end of July (possibly into the first week of August)

Why Join Our Team?

- Gain hands-on experience photographing summer collegiate baseball teams
- Build a portfolio of sports photography and event coverage
- Work closely with staff and build your professional network
- Contribute to documenting and sharing the team's season with fans and players

Application: Please submit a resume and portfolio of previous work; cover letter optional but encouraged.