MY PERSONAL ANALYSIS:

Sure I can't know which one will perform the best until I test.

However, I think the drafts should be on point. I think the quality is close for great performing, not like far away from winning ad.

I stole 3 versions of pictures from top players and 2 of them I came up on my own (1. & 3.).

Also when it comes to ad text, some are mine some of them I stole from top players (local competitor and some from foreign countries).

I used AI and tweak them a bit.

So I would love one final feedback since this is me first time trying to run ads.
