Teachers can now see the student's view within Scholastic News. Navigate to your Scholastic News account via Clever, then click on the switch homepage option in the upper right corner.

The screenshot shows the Scholastic News website interface. At the top, there's a dark blue header with the Scholastic News logo, navigation links like "Latest Issue", "All Issues", "Help & How-To's", and "Videos", a search bar, and user icons. Below this is a light blue navigation bar with categories: "SEL TOOLKIT", "TEXT SETS", "SOCIAL STUDIES", "SCIENCE", "KIDS IN THE NEWS", "DEBATES", "GEOGRAPHY", and a "Switch Homepage" link. A large white notification box in the center says "New! See the student view." and explains that the user is logged in as a teacher. It includes an "OK, Got it" button. To the right of the notification, a text link says "Switch between the teacher and student versions here." with a curved arrow pointing to the "Switch Homepage" link in the navigation bar. At the bottom, there are five colorful tiles: "Your Latest Issue" (blue), a Scholastic News magazine cover, "Website Help & How-To's" (yellow with a question mark icon), "Interactive Graphic Organizers" (pink), and a preview of a graphic organizer (purple).
