

Meeting August 17 2015

Board elected at last meeting

Treasurer's report-Michelle -approved

Elementary music-ukuleles are in...and we all played them.... :) we all sang too....

Elementary band- spread sheet for instruments Erika has bought (15) . Recruitment next Tuesday the 25th...volunteers needed....72 currently signed up

Junior high band- Mr. Hollands Opus instruments have arrived!! Picture has reached 1,400 views!! Projecting 150-175 kids in band. Band handbook is done. 7th and 8th grade have them in hand already. Kids will have jobs in band, due to short period times and about of kids in class. Sending kids to audition for IMEA, jr high level....Looking into field trip to Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra. Director for middle school honor band is Mr. Koffer....

Choir-musical is Annie get your gun. Beetles and pop tunes for beginning of year. Doing recruiting to increase numbers. Jobs in choir. Folders are ordered. Madrigal auditions are the 24th, 26th. Callbacks on 28th. (after school)

High school band- Dates emailed out, friday is black and gold scrimmage-call time is 3:15-/ volunteers needed for plumes. Shows will be videotaped for learning...Michelle has volunteered to do this. Half time show on 9/11 will be patriotic. Armed forces the pride of america, American flag on the field. September 12 is NIU Band Day. No Marching Band Festival. :( Sep 23rd group of kids down to Vandercook for IMEA prep.

Fundraisers-

Restaurant.com giftcards-kids getting 50% of profits, selling during football season. Kids will be walking around during games to sell cards.

Butterbraids-

Poinsettias-

Easter Lilies-

50/50 raffles-

Concessions-

Murder mystery dinner-February, scripts can be purchased for as little as $25 February 12th Korey is contacting Martin to see if he could sponsor this event.

New business-think about getting a credit card. stay in the possession of the band director. Michelle will look into.

Cool news-Korey has an article being published in the Instrumentalist Magazine. September issue.

December 19th pancake breakfast for wrestling tournament

Next months meeting- September 21st 6:30