

1 Student at a Time: Higher Education Resources

1 Student at a Time (1ST) is an organization led by UCLA students, who are committed to assisting fellow students in Los Angeles by easing access to Housing, Health, Food Security, and Higher Education.

The following page consists of several resources to support UCLA students in their academic endeavors. It will be divided into three different sections: financial, academic, and career.

Financial Resources:

Economic Crisis Response Team

- The Economic Crisis Response Team (ECRT) provides support and guidance to students who have self-identified, or are identified by UCLA faculty or staff, as experiencing a financial crisis that impacts their academic success at UCLA. ECRT aims to efficiently, compassionately and discreetly:
 1. Provide a seamless and individualized response to UCLA students in extraordinary financial crisis.
 2. Develop proposals for actions to examine (and revise, when appropriate) university policies and office protocols in order to improve students' ability to manage their financial situations and avoid economic crisis.
- If you are in financial distress, please complete the ECRT Self-Assessment Form.

Academic Resources:

Academic Achievement Program

- AAP advocates and facilitates the access, academic success, and graduation of students who have been historically underrepresented in higher education; informs and prepares students for graduate and professional schools; and develops the academic, scientific, political, economic, and community leadership necessary to transform society.

Undergraduate Writing Center \(UWC\)

- As part of UCLA Writing Programs, the Undergraduate Student Writing Center's mission is to enrich the education of undergraduate students in all disciplines through individualized consultations on writing.

Career Resources:

UCLA Career Center

- From career exploration to skill development, the UCLA Career Center works with students to help them discover their professional strengths as they prepare for graduate school or full-time employment.
