

Good Afternoon,

Your business recently caught my attention via Yelp.

Here is why I emailed you:

I saw that you were growing fast despite the difficulties that exist in the Yoga Studio industry, so i went on to check your website but i saw that there's some mistakes that are hurting your business's growth, and i just NEEDED to tell you about these simple mistakes that are giving the top competitors in your area a head start, such as example Yoga, example Yoga, and even example Yoga

Incorporating these changes would get you more E-Mail sign-ups, traffic, and more clients.

I know it's hard to trust someone in your E-Mail Inbox.

So, here is a risk-free gift:

You have an okay-looking Homepage but it's definitely not enough if you want to beat the competition, so I prepared this carefully hand written example page for your website. With this, the aim is to get more clients to sign up for the Newsletter and get more visitors interested in the studio.

The page's content is tailored to your company and your target market.

Once you give me a reply, we'll discuss the continuation of the 70% unfinished sequence of the page. Before we talk Personalized E-Mail Sequences & Funnels & Sales Pages, I wanted to prove myself.

I am willing to provide value to your company with no risk on your side, no time or money wasted.

You can take this unfinished Homepage and walk away, probably try to finish it on your own or with your team, no harm, no foul.

P.S- since you definitely know services like such cost a lot of money. instead of us jumping straight into it and having you pay me thousands and thousands. let's start with a discovery project first where we get to see if we're a good fit. and i only expect a testimonial in return.

Truly Yours.

Serghini Ahmed Firas.
