Please visit <https://www.adepticon.org/> and sign up for the Deadzone Tournament

One ticket is required per person to play in the Tournament.

The ticket enters a player for all the games on the day (as noted in the tournament schedule below). Tickets can be purchased from the AdeptiCon website. Please bring a printed copy of your order with you to the event.

Prizes

There will be prizes for 1st, 2nd and 3rd places.

There will be additional prizes for the Best Sportsman, Best Painted and Player's Choice.

Age limit

Players must be aged 14 or over. Any player under the age of 16 must be accompanied by an adult (playing or non-playing).

Items you should provide

In addition to your army and copies of your army list, you need to make sure you bring the following:

- All dice, rule-books, damage markers, pencils and other gaming accessories you will need. Make it clear to your opponents how you will be tracking damage. Please bring dice that are clear to read for both you and your opponents.
- Having a tray to carry your Strike Force between games is a great way of keeping the tournament moving smoothly and in a timely fashion.
- Item Tokens will be provided at each play mat

Building your Strike Force

Strike Force

This tournament uses the Deadzone v3 Threat Assessment update from July 2025 with a maximum army total of 200 Points and adhering to the standard rules of Strike Force composition as detailed in the Deadzone rulebook. Players must choose a single Force List up to this points limit and no more than this will be used for all the games on the day.

Living Legends are allowed but Mercenaries are not.

Fan Lists

Fan-lists are considered unofficial and may not be used.

Miniatures

Remember that the best-painted award will only consider armies with Mantic models however. Models must be based on the appropriate base size and shape for their type.

- Models should be painted in at least 3 colours.

If any model is used as a “counts-as” or a proxy for another, this must be made clear to your opponent before a game begins (and during if required). Counts-as and proxy models should be appropriate replacements (no Commandos acting as Teratons) and they should be on appropriate bases.

Force Lists

You are required to submit a copy of your Force List to the organisers at arcemise@gmail.com by March 20th – please write out all units, points costs and any additional equipment in full. You should also have at least one copy for yourself and another spare for your opponents to reference on request. Using a program or list-builder application to create and print out your sheet is often the best option.

Companion Code: u0am4lwzVI

You will require spare copies of your Force List, which you should keep with you when you are playing. Your army list must include:

- All of the models in your army.
- Their equipment and the point value of everything in your army.
- Your name on all copies of the roster.

Please do not use acronyms on any copy of your Force List. If any mistakes are found during the tournament that were not picked up on, the results of all the games in which the player has used the illegal list will immediately be changed to 5-0 Tournament points, in favour of their opponents. This will apply even if the mistake was a totally honest one, so please do double check your Force List before the tournament.

If you are unsure of your army list, please contact the tournament organisers prior to the event for checking.

Notes

Sportsmanship

The tournament includes its own award for sportsmanship. At the end of the final game, players will select their favorite opponent. These scores will then be tallied to determine the winner. We expect all games to be played in an enjoyable manner. We feel that all players should be fair and respectful to their opponent, displaying a fun and inclusive attitude to the game for themselves and their opponent.

Rules Questions and Player Conduct

As noted, all rules will be taken from the Deadzone v3 Core Rulebook. In addition, any official FAQ rulings and errata from Mantic Games (published on their website or official forums) will also be used.

Please note that there is absolutely nothing wrong with asking an opponent if they can show you the appropriate rule or set of characteristics so that you can check for yourself that everything is being done correctly. All we require is that you ask nicely and politely, and that you do your best to sort out any problems yourselves. If in doubt, the organisers are available to resolve your problem. Please also respect the time each player has. If a question cannot be resolved quickly, please stop the clock until the answer or a solution is decided upon.

Judges will be on hand if players require a ruling. Your judges for the event will be pointed out at the start of the day. A judge's ruling is final.

The organisers reserve the right to take appropriate action for any player they deem to be playing unfairly or acting inappropriately. This may be in the form of a warning, a time or TP penalty or even a forced Time Out result. In extreme circumstances a player may be ejected from the Tournament for inappropriate behaviour (such as cheating, excessive swearing, shouting or verbal abuse).

Crowd at the Table

If one player feels discomfort with amount of spectators present at his table, he may request them to step aside. When this happens, a referee will ask everyone around to step away from the table.

Reporting Battle Results

As noted previously, players will be given enough time to play a full game of Deadzone and enough time to hand in results. In order to ensure that the tournament runs smoothly, TP penalties (2 points) may be given to players that report battle results after the scheduled time is over at the tournament organiser's discretion. This penalty will always affect both players.
