

MINA EUSEBIO

E: minaeusebio99@gmail.com

PROFILE

Mina Eusebio (she/they) is an artist and activist with a focus on amplifying underrepresented voices in Ireland. Mina is the current Campus City VP in TU Dublin Students' Union and the founder and Creative Director of Swords Youth Choir, a youth-focused community organisation aimed at educating and introducing ensemble singing to the youth of Fingal and surrounding areas.

EDUCATION

2020–2025 | TU Dublin Conservatoire – Bachelor of Music (Musicology and Voice)

WORK EXPERIENCE

2025 - Present | VP for City Campus – TU Dublin Students' Union

- Responsible for promoting the democratic values of the Students' Union to the 19,000 students in the city campus through orientations, training, and class representative elections.
- Worked in collaboration with multiple VPs (Welfare, Events and Engagements, and Communications) to successfully plan and deliver numerous campaigns such as Orientations, Freshers Week, Housing and EDI awareness.
- Ensure equitable access and improved facilities within the university grounds and four SU Common Rooms across all City Campuses to provide a safe and enjoyable space for students.
- Engaged with key stakeholders within the University and lobbied relevant external figures to increase student representation within all levels of decision-making.
- Passed 6 motions and mandates to Student Council.

2022 – Present | Artistic Director and Conductor – Swords Youth Choir (SYC)

- Developed and produced the SYC's organisational ethos, catering to the needs of the diverse CYP (8-16) population in Fingal and surrounding area with the primary aim of providing high-quality and accessible musical education in conjunction with community building.

- Responsible for all aspects of membership recruitment, digital promotion, and administration which include Child Safeguarding, Code of Conduct and the annual review of the budget.
- Oversees all applications to local and national funding opportunities to maintain and expand SYC's existing and future outreach missions.
- Successfully delivered multiple projects through Grants and Community Schemes including 'SYC Summer Song Camp' (2024 & 2025).
- Manages upwards to four seasonal staff and volunteers for special outreach programmes.
- Curates an engaging musical repertoire based on the youth participation framework in addition to the dedicated space for regular composition commissions from local composers.

2021 – 2025 | Freelance Music Educator – Lawless School of Music, Sing Ireland, Irish Institute of Music and Song

- Taught one-on-one vocal, piano, and early years musical tuition for students aged 3 – 50 +
- Led multiple Summer Camps and delivered an early years musical programme for children aged 4-7.
- Worked as youth support for Irish Youth Training Choir for their residency projects ensuring successful safeguarding and enjoyment of youth participants aged 14-17.

SKILLS

- | | |
|---------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| • Arts management | • Fundraising |
| • Project and budget management | • Public relations |
| • Curation | • MS Suite and Google Workspace |
| • Community Engagement | |

AWARDS

- Fingal Artists' Support Scheme Recipient – 2025
- Fingal Arts Act Grant Recipient – 2025
- Creative Ireland Fingal Communities Grant Recipient – 2023, 2024

INTERESTS

Activism | Volunteering | Photography | Art