

Practitioner Resources for Framing Value in a Network

Where are the places that you draw from to help you speak to the value in your network?	What do you like about the activity?
Visible Value in Networks (Open Session).pdf	There are multiple ways to use this board – for coordinators, for network leaders and participants – to bring forward value.
Community Weaving Framework Fabian Pfortmüller from The Together Institute is great!	The most fabulous rich resource on building networks – offers a framework that is clear and has so many links to resources.
Value Propositions in Networks article	Circle Generation wrote this with a Converge colleague in response to questions a network partner was asking about.
How do we make large gatherings more relational?	Interesting article on ... well, exactly what the heading says 😊
Interaction Institute for Social Change Blog	Short, thoughtful, sharable articles about networks & weaving
FITO Network of Networks	They do WONDERFUL stuff!
YouthxYouth	They talk about love as a revolutionary strategy, radical approach?
The CoCreative Team	They make all their resources freely available
Re-thinking Engagement in Impact Networks
The ecological structure of collaboration Eric Berlow Eric Berlow and Sean Gourley: Mapping ideas worth spreading	Really interesting TED Talks by complexity theorist – an ecologist – Eric Berlow. His visualisations are amazing! (From a while ago, but still cutting edge 😊)
