

Terms and Conditions of the 19th Ethnographic Films Review Eyes and Lenses ("Oczy i Obiektywy")

1. The Organiser of the Ethnographic Films Review Eyes and Lenses is the Ethnographic Laboratory Association (Stowarzyszenie "Pracownia Etnograficzna"), and the Partners - The National Ethnographic Museum in Warsaw and the Institute of Ethnology and Cultural Anthropology of the University of Warsaw.
2. The aim of the Review is to present and promote the best Polish and foreign productions of the ethnographic film genre among the Polish audience.
3. The Review will be held at the end of November 2025 in The National Ethnographic Museum in Warsaw, Poland.
4. The deadline for submissions of films for the 19th edition of the Review is July 20th, 2025.
5. The Organiser does not charge any fees for film submissions.
6. Films submitted for Review are shared by Applicants free of charge.
7. Submission of the film is tantamount to Applicant's consent for the free use of the film by the Organiser in the upcoming and future editions of the Review.
8. A Review is a non-commercial event, and participation in the screenings of films is free of charge.
9. The film is considered to be submitted correctly only if the online application form available on the Review's website has been filled in and an active link (and, if necessary, the access password), under which the video can be downloaded has been attached.
10. The Organiser reserves the right to accept the film in a form different from the one mentioned in the Terms and Conditions in particular cases.
11. The selection of films presented during the 19th edition of the Review will be conducted by a Committee composed of representatives of the Organizer and Review Partners.
12. Information about the results of the recruitment will be sent to the Applicants whose films have been selected by August 31st, 2025.
13. The Organiser of the Review has the full right to determine the sequence of screening of the films, thus placing them in specific contexts or theme blocks.
14. Films may be submitted by the owners of the rights to the film (including authors, institutions financing the production of the film) or persons or institutions having the right to represent the owner of the rights to the film (including film distributors, production companies).
15. After submitting the film to the Review, the Applicant undertakes not to withdraw their application.
16. The Organiser reserves the right to alter the submitted film and promotional materials in the following cases:

- a) Adapting the technical parameters of the film to the cinema hall's equipment requirements.
 - b) Adding Polish subtitles or descriptions necessary for a better understanding of the film by the audience of the Review.
 - c) Adding information about sponsors and partners of the Review, e.g. in the form of animation preceding the film, promotional graphics, etc.
- 17. The Organiser cannot alter the essential or artistic content and continuity of the submitted film.
 - 18. Films which were not selected for the projection during the 19th edition of the Review may be used during the next edition of the event or as a part of the events accompanying the Review. In this case, the Applicant will be informed about it separately.
 - 19. The Applicant agrees to use the content included in the application form (including the attached promotional materials, video materials and fragments of the film) for promotional purposes - official forms and prints, the Review's YouTube channel, social media and website.
 - 20. As a part of the promotional and organisational activities, content and video materials included in the application may be shared with the Review partners - the media, sponsors and other organizations cooperating with the Organisers.
 - 21. Issues not covered by the Terms and Conditions will be resolved by the Organiser and Partners.
 - 22. Additional information can be obtained at the following e-mail address: oczybiobjektywy@etnograficzna.pl.
 - 23. Submitting a film to the Review is tantamount to acceptance of the rules contained in the Terms and Conditions.
 - 24. Terms and Conditions are available in two language versions - Polish and English. In case of solving disputes, controversy and other uncertainties, the Polish version shall be considered legally binding.
