

Group 1: Dr. Dale Whelehan

Please discuss the questions below and type directly into the Google Doc if it helps organize your thoughts. Notes, bullet points, and incomplete sentences are okay.

1. What is this?

- A tweet telling people that the four day work week hit Ireland followed by percentages related to the continuation of the 4 day work week and the benefits of it.

2. Who created this? @Daleyfurter aka Dr Dale Whelehan created this post

3. When was this created?

- November 30, 2022

4. How was this created? On twitter (What technologies were used? A phone was used. (no mention?) How much time do you think the person(s) put into this? Not a lot of time. How much research do you think they did? The main source is a podcast, a very biased 4 day week pro website, and a source that is no longer up

5. Why might this have been created?

-He is a main advocate of the 4 day week

-To support the claim that the 4 work weeks are better than other kinds of work weeks by saying that they improve revenue and companies like the 4 day work week.

6. Do you think the information in the source is accurate, or is it misinformation? Is there additional context?

- There are many sources that show support for the 4 day work week, but there aren't many that show accurate statistics for Ireland's 4 day work week.

It is not 100% of the companies it says some are planning to

7. Is there obvious bias in this source? How can you tell?

- No counter argument?
- Yes major bias is shown by him being the main advocate for the 4 day week along with the sources shown being either biased, not credible, or no longer up.
