

Privacy Policy (for Prayer Tab)

Prayer Tab – Privacy Policy

Prayer Tab does not collect, store, or share any personal information from users.

The extension uses Chrome's storage API solely to store your personal prayer note locally on your own device. This data is never transmitted, analyzed, or accessed by the developer or any third party.

No analytics, tracking scripts, or external connections are used.

No ads, cookies, or user profiling is performed.

Your privacy is fully respected. This extension functions entirely offline.

For questions or concerns, you can contact the developer via the support link in the Chrome Web Store listing.
