

Scooby Doo Zine Application Guidelines

Meddling Kids is a Scooby Doo zine celebrating 50 years of our favourite mystery-solving gang!

This is an SFW, for-charity fan-zine for the Scooby Doo franchise, the profits of which will go to American Humane! You do not have to have written/drawn for Scooby Doo before to apply!

What we're looking for in your application:

Artists:

- Required: 3 to 5 examples of your work
- Given: understanding of anatomy, value, colour, etc. shown in your work
- Recommended: At least one (1) example with a background, examples with bold colour palettes executed well.

Writers:

- Required: 3 to 5 sampled examples of your work, sections of a maximum 1k words each
- Given: Strong character interaction, well-formatted and spell-checked etc.
- Recommended: Comedy in your submissions

For your zine pieces, the guidelines are as follows:

- Artists can choose either a 1 page illustration or a two page spread illustration, unless they would like to work as a Comic Artist, who will get a maximum of 6 pages.
- Writers pieces will be maximum of 3k words, with a recommended length of between 2.5k and 3k words.
- Contributors will be given the option to collaborate with each other.
- Any series, movie or era is allowed, as well as AUs provided they're still family friendly!
- Contributors will be given access to a colour palette of Scooby Doo official merch to inspire them! It isn't necessary to follow these colours, we just want to give you the option to look.
- Pieces for this zine should only have canon-typical violence, sex references, and drug/alcohol references. The rule of thumb is if it was joked about in the live-action movies, it's fair game!
- We ask that shipping is kept to a minimum, to save arguments. You may imply ships in your works, but nothing explicit please. (You can have ships in your application submissions, however!!)
