Daniel Larson is a Pedophile: The Definitive Post (WITH ARCHIVE LINKS + MORE PROOF)

I wanted to make a more structured post on this because the last post I saw compiling all of the pedo evidence didn't hit all the points I found/wanted it to + a few links were broken/deleted, so I took it upon myself to compile all the Daniel Larson pedophile evidence along with archiving it because this subreddit (and community in general) has an issue with preserving Daniel content in general.

Please keep in mind most links will be composed of archive.org links to prevent things from being lost. Feel free to comment on anything that I've missed.

Once you read this, there is no longer an excuse to say that "It's just trolls" or that Daniel is being coerced into saying these things. We can only give him so much leniency, which we can all agree ran out years ago. Just because Daniel happens to be autistic and schizophrenic does not absolve him from any of his misdeeds, because news flash, HAVING A MENTAL ILLNESS DOES NOT MAKE YOU A PEDOPHILE. How do I know? I'm autistic myself, and I haven't had a single thought of touching a child. People should know by now.

And to Ox, because I know you lurk in this place like your life depends on it, stop excusing Daniel of being a pedophile. Every time you do that, you dig a deeper hole for yourself. Literally everyone on here hates you, you're a grifter and a clout-chaser who claims to want to help autistic and disabled people when you constantly use harmful language against them and fail to hold Daniel accountable for what he does.

But anyways, lets get into it.

1. Daniel had admitted to being a pedophile multiple times, while it can be argued that his management pushed him to say this, you'd expect him to wise up by now and stop admitting it after the first time. But no, he does not.

Seventh Admission, while talking with a manager he says he had allegedly looked at CP:

Technically not an admission, but on his own accord Daniel justifies having sex with minors because of legal loopholes in certain states:

Daniel saying that the age of consent should be 18 "But also 15":

2. Daniel is known to CONSTANTLY save pictures of children in vulnerable positions, along with looking up disgusting things concerning kids. Something to note is that when sharing/saving pictures of Grace, most of the time he saves pictures of her from her childhood when she was UNDERAGE. The version of Grace he sees is a minor. Take that as you will.

Keep in mind how Daniels looks up children wetting the bed. Something to note is that before this, Daniels piss kink was not public knowledge. Nobody could have faked this beforehand, only Daniel himself could have. Flexburger may be a questionable person, but as far as I know, he's been very truthful when it comes to exposing Daniel as a pedophile.

3. Whenever Daniel comes in contact with people he believes to be minors, he always says the worst things imaginable. This has happened more than once, and every time it has happened it has been verifiably proved that it is Daniel doing this.

Having the take that "these conversations are coerced" is an objectively bad take. Daniel is a 24-year-old man and he is fully aware that pedophilia is wrong. These conversations are used to catch actual predators, most notably on To Catch a Predator. Daniel fully believed that these people that he was speaking to were CHILDREN, there is simply no excuse. There is no "coercion", just Daniel being a sexual deviant.

4. Daniel's behavior towards ACTUAL children.

Daniel used to live in a home with a family that had two children, one of them being named Breanna. In this video linked, he is seen pushing her down, trying to kiss her:

<https://archive.org/details/daniellarsonbriana>

Yes, it can be argued that they were playing, but not too long after this he was found making MULTIPLE SEXUAL COMMENTS about this child, most notably projecting his piss kink onto her and saying she was an "upcoming pornstar". And according to Flexburger, it was also found that one of the passwords was "BreannaPees", while I have yet to find proof of it, knowing Daniel it's probably true.

In conclusion, Daniel Larson is a pedophile and nothing you say can make him innocent. He has used his disability and went out of his way to study consent laws so he can get away with this stuff, and people need to start opening their eyes to this. HE IS AWARE OF WHAT HE IS DOING AND CONTINUES TO DO IT.

Daniel is a pedophile on his own accord and continues to lie about it, saying that he has never touched a child when there is verifiable proof that he has, and that he doesn't have to touch a child to be considered a pedophile. Even without the trolls, there is a high, HIGH chance of him still being one. It's in bad faith to say the "trolls" are the ones doing it when all we do is confirm that Daniel, still is, in fact, a predator. Stop trying to defend blatantly deviant behavior.

All of this proof can be used to get him legitimately arrested, if you can, please tip the police or anyone that can help with his arrest.
