

1. I did not like your characterization of the meeting we had.
2. The coach gave us a speech about motivation and always doing our best.
3. There was a conflict between two football players during the game.
4. Our coach told us that loyalty is one of the most important values a player can demonstrate.
5. The protagonist in the story I read saved the day.
6. The antagonist in the story had very strong opinions about the main character.
7. The flat character in the story was the main characters best friend.
8. The round character in the story changed his ways after bullying kids at his school for many years.
9. The static character says hello to me everyday on the way to work, and that's the only time I ever see him.
10. The dynamic character in the story goes to a new school, and tries to make new friends.