

This proposal is requesting 5 random Warriors & 5 nightmare imp treat boxes from the House of Wizards DAO collection.

These are to be delivered to the legend: Tania Del Rio (Eth Address: 0x88Ed0404771C8b5404094a516c7d58ad2E6A972D) as a small "Thank you" from the community for her relentless work on the Cult Content Chronicle.

Every.
Damn.
Week.

These would be for her to use at her discretion and only to recognize the work she has put into the CCC up until now. This is not intended to be as prepayment for future CCC work or have any expectation that she continue the CCC beyond today.

For more information on The Cult Content Chronicle, please check out the Wizzypedia page or Tania's twitter.

The secret second purpose of this proposal is to highlight just how simple and minor a DAO proposal can be in an attempt to motivate more community members to seek support for their fun little projects. Not every proposal needs to be a massive project with huge potential. Sometimes you just want to say thanks to community members for compiling the artwork of the community.
