

Subject Line: Spark Your Reach

Hey Stephen,

I like your latest video where your background was easy on the eyes and made you the center of focus. It makes your content easy to digest and is a fire way to lock your financially hungry audience! (Compliment)

I took a look at your socials and saw that you lacked eye-catching marketing on your Cash College course.

So, for you... I went and made an advertisement you can use for your course that could increase your sales on it by a good amount.

Let me know with a “yes” if you’d like to see what I’ve made for you.

Life is best when it’s shared. (A phrase they use, seemed important to them. Thought it would be a nice touch)

P.S. – It’s completely free. Take it as little personal gift from me to you!

All the best,

Nathan
