

Matryoshka Dolls

A fun activity sheet for our trip to Russia

A matryoshka doll, or Russian nesting doll (Russian: Матрёшка) is a set of wooden dolls of increasing size placed one inside the other. The first Russian nested doll set was carved in 1890.

Matryoshka dolls are often designed to follow a particular theme, for instance peasant girls in traditional dress, but the theme can be anything, from fairy tale characters to Soviet leaders. Take some time to think of a theme and decorate your own set of dolls! Leave them as is or get creative after cutting them out!
