Subject-Practical nurse cover letter

Dear

I'm applying for the position of practical nurse at [Mention the name], and I sincerely hope you'll think highly of me as one of the candidates. I've had practice taking vital signs, evaluating patients' conditions, and getting them ready for doctor visits. Once a patient has been diagnosed, I can explain their condition, go over the medications recommended, and go over the next steps.

I can also respond to any inquiries they may have regarding their health or the prescription drugs their doctor has recommended. When patients are unable to take care of their personal needs on their own, I can assist them thanks to my excellent bedside manner. I am able to keep a close eye on patients and notify the on-call doctor if their condition changes.

I am aware of the dangers associated with working with people who have particular illnesses and medical conditions, and I am also fully aware of all the precautions to take to protect myself and other people. I always follow safety procedures, and I am mentally and physically capable of handling working in this kind of setting. I have a license and can work any shift that your facility requires.

I've included my entire professional history in the resume that is attached. I look forward to meeting with you soon to go over the specifics of this position. I appreciate the chance to work for a reputable organization like yours.

To arrange a meeting where we can go over this position in greater detail, please call [Mention The Phone Number].

Sincerely,

James Brown
