Atlanta community Food Bank	MISSION: to fight hunger by engaging, educating and empowering our community.	Atlanta Community Food Bank Inc.	EIN: 58-1376648 Atlanta, GA, United States	DC:PC
Atlanta Farmers Coalition	MISSION: as a networking group for farmers serving the metro Atlanta area. The group evolved in just a few short months to include over 45 farmers representing 30 farms, who have collectively established a buying co-op, engaged with local and state-level politicians, helped launch an urban agricultural land allotment program with the City of Atlanta, hosted fundraising events, hosted Georgia's first CSA Fair,
Common Market, The	MISSION: The Common Market is a nonprofit regional food distributor with a mission to connect communities with good food from sustainable family farms. We strive to improve food security, farm viability, and community and ecological health. Currently operating in the Mid-Atlantic, Georgia, and Texas, The Common Market is expanding to other U.S. regions to build a nation of vibrant regional food systems. Choose a location to become a customer, producer or to learn more about our local initiatives.

Community Farmers Markets Atlanta	MISSION: The mission of Community Farmers Markets is to develop a local food infrastructure for long term sustainability and meaningful community impact. Our purpose is to preserve, root, and grow a diverse local food culture by maintaining an authentic space for all people to share community, fair food, and healthy lifestyles while providing a sustainable living for producers who steward the earth.	Community Farmers Markets Inc.	EIN: 27-5262520 Atlanta, GA, United States	DC:PC

Food Not Bombs

MISSION: We distribute hot meals and groceries every week to hundreds of hungry people. We stand up against the oppression of homeless and poor people. We work to create real alternatives to war, capitalism, and domination.

~ Non-profit, Tax-exempt Status ~
People often ask if we are a nonprofit, tax-exempt corporation. Generally, we are not interested in the bureaucracy needed to maintain such an organization. Sometimes, you might use an "umbrella" to assist in arranging a particular donation of money that specifically needs to be given to a non-profit, tax-exempt group, and this is fine. It is usually not too difficult to find a tax-exempt organization to do this for you. Specifically, however, do not seek permission from any government agency to engage in the work you do. Once a group becomes a tax-exempt organization, the I.R.S. has the right to oversee all aspects of its operation and limit much of what it can do. Rather than try to hide from them, we prefer to ignore them.

Gangstas to Growers	MISSION: Gangstas to Growers is a program focused on empowering at-risk youth and our formerly incarcerated through agriculture, employment, and entrepreneurship. We provide paid entrepreneurial internships for at-risk youth, gang members and formerly incarcerated individuals to give them a chance to participate in the legitimate economy. Trainees are mentored by local farmers through SWAG and West GA Farmers Cooperatives. While earning 12.50/hr, they will participate in yoga, political education, financial literacy, environmental responsibility, health/nutritional cooking classes and group therapy sessions. Our "Sweet Sol" sauce helps us become self-sustainable.
Georgia Citizens Coalition on Hunger	MISSION: The mission of the Georgia Citizens Coalition on Hunger is to end hunger, homelessness and poverty in communities of color across the state of Georgia. We facilitate our mission through the projects and programs of the Hunger Coalition. Our vision is to achieve well-being for all families, so that their necessities of life are met. This includes having access to nutritious affordable food, safe and affordable comprehensive healthcare and a quality education for everyone.	Georgia Citizens Coalition On Hunger Inc.	EIN: 23-7422289 Atlanta, GA, United States

Georgia Equality	MISSION: to advance fairness, safety and opportunity for lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender communities and our allies throughout the state. We are two organizations – united with a common vision but serving unique functions in our work to achieve equality. Georgia Equality, Inc. works year-round to pass pro-equality legislation and elect fair-minded elected officials. Through the Equality Foundation of Georgia, we conduct voter registration and educational activities, provide information to decision makers, and work to organize and mobilize LGBT residents and allies to advance equality in urban, suburban, and rural communities across the state.	Equality Foundation Of Georgia Inc.	EIN: 58-2346744 Atlanta, GA, United States	DC:PC

CATEGORY: REPRODUCTIVE RIGHTS/HEALTH
Abortion Funds	MISSION: The National Network of Abortion Funds builds power with members to remove financial and logistical barriers to abortion access by centering people who have abortions and organizing at the intersections of racial, economic, and reproductive justice.

Atlanta Birth Project,
The

MISSION: The Atlanta Birth Project provides underserved communities with an integrative approach to childbirth education in order to empower women in informed decision-making for their bodies and their babies. Classes are committed to helping women challenge media messages about birth, build body knowledge, gain an understanding of medical terminology, procedures and interventions, and determine their own preferences for birth. The Atlanta Birth Project teaches Balanced Birth, a yoga-infused childbirth education series that incorporates trauma-informed pre and postnatal yoga and mindfulness to prepare women mentally, emotionally and physically for the journey of childbirth and motherhood. Since doulas have been proven to reduce the likelihood of a cesarean section by anywhere from 28 percent (Hodnett et al., 2012) to 56 percent (Kozhimannil et al., 2016) for full-term births, The Atlanta Birth Project is committed to connecting laboring women with certified labor doulas in order to improve birth outcomes, reduce birth trauma and early infant trauma, and challenge cycles of poverty for underserved mothers.
