Manolis Projects Art Gallery Partners With South Beach's Iconic Art Deco Sagamore Hotel To Debut the RELISHING RED Art Exhibit Amongst a Star Studded Artist Reception

MIAMI, Fla.-- Manolis Projects Art Gallery is pleased to announce its collaboration to bring its latest art exhibit, RELISHING RED, to South Beach's Sagamore Hotel with a star studded artist reception on Tues., March 22, 2022 from 6 PM to 9 PM.

This collaboration is made possible thanks to the Sagamore Hotel art program, #SagamoreisArt, which showcases diverse world class art in their iconic art deco hotel lobby several times a year. RELISHING RED features over 15 unique art pieces from noteworthy artists including Bruce Helander, Maite Nobo, Ron Burkhardt, Carol Calicchio, and Hamilton Aguiar, to name a few. "This stunning collection will sure to stop everyone in their tracks passing through the Sagamore's hotel lobby. It's both vibrant, creative and thought-provoking because it touches on many emotions known to the human experience including joy, strength, love, sexuality, power, and impulsiveness," said J. Steven Manolis, founder, owner and curator at the Manolis Project Art Gallery.

Known as one of Miami's most iconic Art Deco hotels in South Beach, the family-owned Sagamore Hotel is situated in a lavish oceanfront destination and equally serves as a stunning artistic & cultural epicenter offering curated and immersive art experiences for visitors and locals alike. "We're honored to partner with and present The Manolis Projects' latest art exhibit and host an artist reception where Miamians and visitors can meet the artists and mingle with other art aficionados. It has been a pleasure to work with J. Steven and his lovely wife, Myrthia, while also elevating inspiring art in the local community," said Ronit Neuman, owner and President of the Sagamore Hotel South Beach.

The exhibit will be open for free to the public starting March 1, 2022 through March 31, 2022. To RSVP to the Sagamore Hotel's artist reception event in which RELISHING RED and its artists will be debuted in front of a star studded audience, please email design@designingthedistrict.com or RSVP here.
