about it 😎 honored to be from a place with a rich history - I grew up near Dutchtown in Haverstraw, so privileged in some sense to have grown up with friends who spoke about how we lived in an area where settlers coexisted & traded with local indigenous communities prior to the establishment of the colonies... that knowledge helped me along my journey in decolonizing my mind... BUT also very close to the military academy and many "locals" with strong feelings about all the landmarks related to colonial violence so in short, it's hard to articulate but I'm always working on learning more about it and processing those feelings

Yeah, I think often back to it. After a trip abroad I'm more cognizant than ever before about it now that I'm back on the continent, and I will like to talk honestly about the justice still to realize for the Lenape, the Wappinger, and especially with still present members of the peoples in the River valley from ancestral times to today.
Are you of indigenous family yourself, by the way?

WAIT, SO WFP IS A THIRD PARTY?
DEMOCRATS
REPUBLICANS
IS WFP A FACTION OF THE DEMOCRATS, OR AN INDEPENDENT PARTY?
THE SHORT ANSWER IS: BOTH. WE READ LOCAL CONDITIONS AND EXECUTE "NON-DELUSIONAL" STRATEGIES THAT ALLOW US TO BUILD MORE POWER OVER TIME.

It's very motivating to hear that you are hopeful that we can recruit people leaning/voting republican. I feel like that HAS to be part of the solution but don't know how feasible it is to convince a "republican" to vote for a "democratic" candidate.

Not that I know of (closed adoption cut off my knowledge of my maternal lineage, my father's a descendant of European/Ashkenazi immigrants). But I am always trying to learn more about the history of the land I'm on, and my children are mixed so I feel it's particularly important for them as descendants of colonizers, indigenous (most likely Tupi Guarani) & Africa

Complete necessary state/local forms to declare your intention to run, and don't miss deadlines!

CANDIDATE JOB DESCRIPTION
Must be willing to put in the hard, messy, unglamorous work.
Spend hours on the phone asking contacts and future friends and supporters to contribute.
Spend more hours on doors, on phones, at events telling voters who you are and what you stand for.
Always stay "on-message" and keep your comments focused on what you want the campaign to be about, which may be different from what reporters or opponents want to talk about.
Set the tone for the campaign with staff and campaign leaders.
Figure out trusted partners to help illuminate the issues you don't know as well. On-the-job training provided and you don't need to know everything but you need good instincts and relationships to support your growth.

2. Who is actually an obstacle to that?
a. How broad is the agreement about that?
b. Who will hate this move and do we care?
c. How strong or weak are they?
