

Ingenious Hackathon, AU

3rd-4th March, 2018

Three teams from DA-IICT took part in the Ingenious Hackathon organised at Ahmedabad University by the IEEE Student Branch of Ahmedabad University and, one of the teams representing DA-IICT bagged the First Prize in Smart City domain in the Hackathon whereas the other two teams got 2nd position in their respective domains i.e. Internet of Things and Machine Learning.

Details of the projects are as follows.

Project Name - Smart Road System

Description - Connecting every vehicle to the internet and a smart parking system

Members:

1. Aagam P. Mehta (BTech Third Year) (IEEE #: 94639131)
2. Kunjal Rupala (BTech Third Year)
3. Prahar Modi (BTech Second Year) (IEEE #: 94265061)

Rank - 1st in Smart City Domain

Prize - Cash prize and early incubation by Surat Municipal Corporation under Surat Smart City

Project name: Category Predictor and Summarizer

Description: Category Predictor: Categorize government tenders into CPV of goods.

Summarizer: Reducing hundreds of product reviews into a summarized text of positive and negative feedback consisting of maximum 10 sentences along with highlighting important keywords.

Members:

1. Maitreya Patel (BTech Second Year) (IEEE #: 93998809)
2. Raksha Rank (BTech Second Year) (IEEE #: 94107538)
3. Anery Patel (BTech Second Year) (IEEE #: 94108153)
4. Dhruval Suthar (BTech Second Year)

Rank-2nd in Machine Learning domain and honourable mentions overall

Prize- Internship opportunity at a startup

Project Name - Smart gym monitoring

Description - A wearable t-shirt which would monitor the daily gym activities and gives analytics by reading data from several sensors.

Members:

1. Abhi Ratnman (BTech Second Year) (IEEE #: 94432565)
2. Siddharth Pogul (BTech Second Year)
3. Rutvik Shah (BTech Second Year)

Rank - 2nd in the Internet of Things Domain