

Legal and Integration Assistance Resources in Pittsburgh + Allegheny County

- Allegheny County Human Services:
<https://www.alleghenycounty.us/Human-Services/Resources/Incarceration-Support.aspx>
 - Resources for anyone who has been incarcerated
 - Specific sections for families, parents, women, people with mental health or substance use disorders, and people ages 60+
- Foundation of Hope: <https://www.foundationofhope.org/>
 - Provides support during and after incarceration
 - Life skills education, counseling, etc.
- Project H.E.L.P.:
<https://homelesslegalprotection.com/h-e-l-p-locations/pittsburgh/>
 - Provides legal assistance with both civil and criminal issues
 - Partnered with Pittsburgh Mercy's Operation Safety Net -
<https://www.pittsburghmercy.org/homeless-services/pittsburgh-mercys-operation-safety-net/>
- Pro Bono Center: <http://www.pittsburghprobono.org/>
 - Provides legal assistance with civil issues including divorce, criminal records clearing, and housing
 - Support programs

- ACLU Pennsylvania:
<https://www.aclupa.org/en/chapters/greaterpittsburgh>
 - Provides assistance for those whose civil liberties (voting rights, freedom of speech, LGBTQ+ rights, immigrants' rights, etc.) have been violated
- jailbreak: <https://www.instagram.com/jailbreakpgh/?hl=en>
 - Local support collective