

Nordonia Hills City School District

Black History Month Activities 2022-2023

Our Black History Month Theme is Better Together

- Black History Month Honoree: Michael Douglas, posthumous award
- Black History Month daily calendar
- Video Read aloud
 - All District families are welcome to view!
- Nordonia Family Always First Night 2/27/2023
- Family Film Night 2/28/2023- All district families are welcome to attend!
 - PBS Documentary viewing of Zora Neale Hurston: Claiming a Space
5-7 pm at Lee Eaton

Northfield Elementary

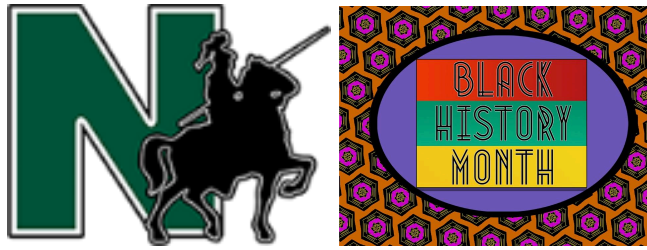

- Selection of 12 Influential Black Americans
- Student-created posters
- Trivia
- Art
- Read Aloud

Rushwood Elementary

- Books, Poems, Art, Posters, Images, and Writing displays with African American Authors
- Traditional Songs listening sessions
- Martin Luther King lessons
- History Lessons and biography study of historical and notable figures

Ledgeview

- Daily important person in history contest
- Grade level short research project
- Parents can participate in a Black History Gallery Walk at the end of the month

Nardonia Hills City School District
Black History Month Activities 2022-2023

Lee Eaton

- Trivia Contests
- Art Contests through Art Club
- Giant Facial Profile Figures for Black History Month in open areas
- Door Decorating Contest
- Language Arts Literature study

Nardonia Middle School

- 7th Social Studies spotlight person of the day, other relevant topics to be covered
- 8th grade Social Studies Choice board of BHM activities
- Band/Music—Learn about Black composers and musicians
- Math—Research famous mathematicians
- Art Contest
- Daily trivia presented by students on the announcements
- Remote Heart of Hall of Famer event with Aeneas Williams for MS students (2/9/23 at 2:30pm)

Nardonia High School

- School Wide Door Museum
- Monday Messages written and delivered on the announcements by Black Experience II students
- Art Contest and Display
- 9th Grade SS In-School Field Trip
- 10th Grade SS Civil Right Unit
- 11th Grade English Project
- Heart of Hall of Famer event with Robert Brazile field trip events for high school students 2/23/23. Google sign- up starts 2/1/2023. Please see Mr. Fox at the HS if interested.