

A Message from the Host:

Hi everyone,

The edcampHOME team is really fired up for version 3.0. There are a few things you must do to participate in the event.

1. You MUST be on Google+ make sure you have a page like this:

<https://plus.google.com/u/0/+DavidTherault/about> if you don't please login to your gmail account and click on the top right where it says your name followed by a + sign and click it and set up your Google+ profile. It is REALLY helpful if your Google+ name is your full name and has a picture of you. The event takes place USING Google+ tools, if you are not on Google+ you can't participate. Every time we run this event we have people at the last minute figure this out and it's really confusing for them to learn how to set up G+ and get in the community in time. So join G+ (it's easy) and if you registered for #edcampHOME via eventBRITE send me a Tweet and I'll get you in. @davidtEDU

2. You MUST be a member of our Google+ edcampHOME 3.0 community. If you have not received an invite, it is because you were not on Google+ yet. If you did register and you have not yet received your Google+ invite, please send an email or tweet to one of the organizers. Please include the link to your Google+ url and the Gmail that is associated with that Google+ account.

3. If you have never been in a Google Hangout please go to the Hangouts part of Google+ and try starting one. When you first try starting one it will ask you to download some necessary tools. Do this BEFORE the event.

Lastly, if you plan on helping us on the day of the event (we need people to volunteer to be Google Hangout On Air initiators for each session we have) please try and start a Google Hangout On Air before the day of the event. If necessary it will prompt you asking you to confirm your YouTube account. We need you to do this before the day of the event.

Thanks for reading this. The event is coming up QUICK!

Thanks to the 300+ people who registered for #edcampHOME if you didn't register and still want to participate ALL of the sessions will be aired LIVE at www.edcamphome.org and you can interact using the Q and A feature of Google On Airs or using the hashtag #edcampHOME on Twitter. Sorry we can't take anymore last minute registrations, but I can't tell you how long it takes just to round up the people who have registered. We currently have over 60 people who registered who are NOT in the G+ yet and I'm tracking them down one by one. Once they are in there's a bunch of G+ organizing we have to do so it's not as easy as just showing up to a physical edcamp.

Please remember these happen once a summer every year, usually in July, so if you missed us this time, we look forward to seeing you next year.

See you at www.edcamphome.org this Thursday,

The edcampHOME team: David, Shawn, Kelly and Karl
