Upcoming Events

Friday, November 28 - Friday, December 5, 2025

"Mass Blackout"

NO CORPORATE SPENDING - SHOP SMALL AND LOCAL - PAY WITH CASH

The collaborators invite community members to join the upcoming "Mass Blackout," an economic boycott running from November 28–December 5. They encourage everyone to pause corporate spending, direct purchases toward small and local businesses, and pay with cash instead of credit cards. They share that they've gathered helpful resources and recommended local businesses on their website, and they'll be reposting content to support people in shifting their spending habits during the blackout period.

Deep Canvassing to Help Flip the House in 2026

Virtual on Zoom: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/87995092554>

Do you want to help stop the damage being done to our institutions, our communities, and the rule of law?

The election results from Virginia, New Jersey, and California on Tuesday (11/4) are encouraging, but there is still plenty of work ahead. One of the most impactful actions we can take right now is to help flip the House of Representatives to Democratic control in 2026.

Top 10 Swing Districts:

- PA district 10: Harrisburg and York
- PA district 7: Allentown, Bethlehem and Easton, Lehigh Valley
- PA district 8: Scranton
- CO district 8: Westminster, Thornton, Greeley, greater Denver, Brighton, Commerce City
- NE district 2: Omaha including Saunders County
- IO district 1: Davenport, Quad Cities, Iowa City, Burlington, Indianola
- IO district 3: Des Moines, Dallas County
- MI district 7: Lansing, Oakland County

- CA district 22: Bakersfield, San Joaquin Valley
- WI district 3: Eau Claire, LaCrosse, Stevens Point, exurbs of Minneapolis/ St. Paul

Please join us on Thursday, Dec. 4th, from 5:00 PM to 6:15 PM, to learn how deep canvassing can make a real difference. If you have community organizer contacts in any of the target districts, contact David Fleischer at davefleischer@gmail.com.

RSVP: Email Bob Moriarty at rjmoriarty60@gmail.com or call 708-466-3620.

By Request Trainings

Legal Observing Trainings

- Provided by the Portland Chapter of the National Lawyers Guild (NLG) - nlg.org/pdx
- Legal observers trained by the Portland Chapter are dispatched to political events in the Portland area to prevent and, when necessary, document police abuse.
- Requests for legal observers and observer training can be made by emailing pdxlegalobserver@nlg.org or via the chapter's contact page.

Know Your Rights Trainings

- Provided by the Portland Chapter of the National Lawyers Guild (NLG) - nlg.org/pdx
- The Portland NLG offers free Know Your Rights trainings when requested by groups — from high school classrooms, to organizational meetings, to in the streets right before rallies and protests. They help community members understand and assert their rights when interacting with law enforcement.
- To request a training, contact the Portland Chapter via their contact page.

Know Your Rights Trainings

- Provided by Civil Liberties Defense Center - cldc.org/know-your-rights
- Our Know Your Rights (KYR) training is our most regular and widely held educational event. Each workshop is tailored to the needs of the particular group of participants.
 - Know Your Rights for Activists

- Know Your Rights for Immigrants
- Know Your Rights for Youth
- Interested in us giving a training? Make a request here.

Nonviolence & De-escalation Trainings

- Provided by the Portland Peace Team (PPT) - portlandpeaceteam.org
 - The Portland Peace Team offers customized trainings for individuals and groups in nonviolence and de-escalation skills. Team members also provide unarmed civilian peacekeeping presence at public events, helping to reduce tension and prevent harm when invited by nonviolent organizations.
 - To request a training, contact Tom Hastings at pcwtom@gmail.com or email peaceteam.pdx@gmail.com.

Presented by Oregon Justice Resource Center

Watch the recording here: <https://youtu.be/Y6l4x5PAZI0>

This webinar was originally recorded on 10/9/25 to provide training for people in Oregon on knowing your rights in encounters with law enforcement or ICE. It is general information, not legal advice for specific situations or individuals, and may no longer be current when you are viewing it. If you have questions about your own legal situation, you should speak with an attorney.
