
ASUCBL 3206: CaITV

Section 1: Establishment

- 1.1 CaITV is organized as an ASUC Program pursuant to ASUCBL 3201.
- 1.2 CaITV is UC Berkeley's Online TV Station. This program offers hands-on experience with all facets of media production, and gives students a chance to analyze the creative, technical, and ethical aspects of the media industry. In addition to gaining a general understanding of the media field, students will choose a particular department to specialize in.
- 1.3 CaITV shall provide requested video services for the ASUC and cover on-campus events and/or news. CaITV will work in coordination with the ASUC Chief Communications Officer. The CaITV executive committee shall determine the extent to which it is able to provide additional video services to other ASUC sponsored organizations.