INTRODUCTION

[Background, research gap/problem, relevant literature, novelty/contribution, and purpose/ objective/question.]

LITERATURE REVIEW / FRAMEWORK CONCEPTUAL

It contains theories / concepts / approaches / perspectives / paradigms, etc. which will be used to analyse certain cases or selected topics. The naming of the analytical framework may be adjusted or replaced by the names / terms that reflect the conceptual or theoretical framework to be used (e.g. Balance of Power, Soft Power and etc.).

METHOD

[Design, setting/context, participants/data sources, sampling, instruments/ materials, procedures, analysis, etc.]

RESULT

[Present findings objectively. Number tables and figures consecutively and refer to each in the text.]

Table 1. [Descriptive title]

Variable	Result	Unit/Note
[]	[]	[]

DISCUSSION

[Interpret findings, compare them with relevant prior research, explain agreements/differences, relate findings to method or theory, discuss implications, and address limitations.]

7.1 Comparison With Previous Research: [Insert synthesis.]

7.2 Theoretical / Practical Implications: [Insert implications.]

7.3 Limitations: [Insert limitations.]

CONCLUSION

[State the principal conclusion in relation to the research objective/question, implications, limitations, and future research.]

Acknowledgements: [State assistance that does not qualify for authorship and supplementary material associated with this article. If none: None.]

Competing Interests: The authors declare that they have no financial or personal relationships that may have inappropriately influenced the research, analysis, or writing of this article.

Ethical Considerations: [State ethical approval/clearance, institution, approval number/date where applicable; informed consent and confidentiality. If approval was not required, explain why.]

CRedit authorship contribution statement: [Specify each author's contribution. For a single-author article, state responsibility for conceptualization, methodology, analysis, writing, and final approval.]

Funding Information: [State funding and grant numbers, or: This research received no specific grant from any funding agency in the public, commercial, or not-for-profit sectors.]

Data Availability: [State data/material availability. If unavailable, explain ethical, legal, privacy, or confidentiality restrictions.]

AI Use Disclosure: [State whether AI/generative AI was used. If used, identify tool, version where available, purpose, and extent. Authors remain responsible for accuracy, originality, integrity, and ethical compliance.]

Disclaimer: [Optional: The views and interpretations expressed are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect those of their affiliated institution, editors, or publisher.]

REFERENCES

The reference list must contain only sources cited in the manuscript. Arrange references alphabetically by the surname of the first author and apply APA 7th edition consistently.

Minimum 80% Journal Articles

At least 80% of all references cited in the manuscript must be scholarly peer-reviewed journal articles. Other relevant sources may include books, chapters, proceedings, reports, official documents, regulations, datasets, and websites where appropriate.

Ten-Year Reference Requirement

References should be published within the last ten (10) years, calculated from the year of manuscript submission. For a manuscript submitted in 2026, the principal reference base should therefore be from 2016–2026. Expect a minimum of 25 references.

Essential Older Sources

Older sources may be cited when genuinely necessary, including foundational theories, classical works, seminal studies, primary historical sources, original methodological works, important legal/regulatory documents, or other indispensable sources.

Citation And Referencing Style

CHEVRA uses the American Psychological Association (APA) 7th edition style for in-text citations and reference lists. Authors must apply APA 7th edition consistently throughout the manuscript.

Every source cited must appear in the reference list, and every reference listed must be cited. Authors are responsible for verifying author names, years, titles, journal information, page numbers, DOI information, and URLs.

In-Text Citation (Author-Date System)

Parenthetical: (Smith, 2024)

Narrative: Smith (2024) argues that ...

One Author

(Smith, 2024) or Smith (2024)

Two Authors

(Smith & Jones, 2024); Smith and Jones (2024). Use “and” in narrative citations and “&” in parenthetical citations.

Three or More Authors

(Smith et al., 2024); Smith et al. (2024).

Several Sources

(Anderson, 2022; Brown, 2023; Smith et al., 2024). Arrange alphabetically.

Same Author, Different Years

(Smith, 2021, 2023, 2024).

Same Author, Same Year

(Smith, 2024a, 2024b). Use the same letters in the reference list.

Direct Quotations

(Smith, 2024, p. 25); multiple pages: (Smith, 2024, pp. 25–27).

Paraphrasing

(Smith, 2024) or Smith (2024). Page numbers are optional but may help readers locate complex material.

Secondary Sources

(Freud, 1923, as cited in Smith, 2024). Normally list only the source actually consulted.

Organization Author

First: (World Health Organization [WHO], 2024). Subsequent: (WHO, 2024).

No Author

Use a shortened title: ("Title of Article," 2024).

No Date

(Smith, n.d.).

Same Surname

(A. Smith, 2024; B. Smith, 2023) where needed to avoid ambiguity.

Multiple Different Authors

(Brown, 2022; Jones, 2023; Smith, 2024). Arrange alphabetically.

DOI And Url Requirements

Where a DOI is available, provide it in URL form: <https://doi.org/xxxxx>. Do not write "DOI:" before the DOI. Check DOI and URL accuracy before submission.

Reference Quality

Prioritize relevant, recent, peer-reviewed, reputable, traceable scholarly sources and provide valid DOI information where available.

AI USE DISCLOSURE – EXAMPLES

If no AI was used: “The authors declare that no artificial intelligence or generative AI tools were used in the preparation, analysis, or writing of this manuscript.”

If AI was used for language editing: “During the preparation of this manuscript, the authors used [AI tool name] for language editing and grammar improvement. The authors reviewed and verified the AI-assisted output and take full responsibility for the accuracy, originality, and integrity of the final manuscript.”

If AI was used substantively: “During the preparation of this manuscript, the authors used [AI tool name, version where available] for [purpose and extent]. The authors independently verified the output and remain fully responsible for the accuracy, originality, integrity, and ethical compliance of the final manuscript.”

AI AND GENERATIVE AI POLICY FOR AUTHORS

CHEVRA permits responsible use of AI and generative AI tools as supportive tools in research and manuscript preparation, provided that such use does not compromise research integrity, authorship accountability, confidentiality, originality, or transparency.

Authors may use AI-assisted tools for limited purposes such as language improvement, grammar correction, spelling, translation, formatting assistance, or other editorial support, provided that the authors remain fully responsible for the final content.

AI tools must not be used to fabricate, falsify, manipulate, or invent research data or findings; generate inaccurate or fabricated references/citations; create misleading research results, figures, or tables; conceal plagiarism or duplicate publication; or process confidential, unpublished, or personally identifiable information without appropriate authorization.

AI tools cannot be listed as authors or co-authors. Authors remain fully responsible for the accuracy, originality, integrity, ethical compliance, and intellectual content of the manuscript.

Authors must disclose AI or generative AI use when it has materially contributed to the development, analysis, generation, or revision of the manuscript. Routine spelling or grammar functions that do not materially generate content may be treated according to the journal's current instructions.

AI USE BY REVIEWERS AND EDITORS

Reviewers and editors must protect the confidentiality of submitted manuscripts. They must not upload, paste, or otherwise transfer unpublished manuscripts, confidential manuscript content, reviewer reports, personal data, or other confidential information into publicly accessible AI or generative AI tools without appropriate authorization.

AI tools must not replace the independent scholarly judgment of reviewers or editors. Reviewers and editors remain responsible for their assessments and decisions.

AUTHOR SUBMISSION CHECKLIST

- ☐ Manuscript follows the current CHEVRA Author Guidelines.
- ☐ Title, author names, affiliations, ORCID, and corresponding-author information are complete.
- ☐ Abstract and keywords are complete and accurately entered in OJS metadata.
- ☐ Tables and figures are numbered, captioned, and cited in the text.
- ☐ Ethical considerations are stated where applicable.

- ☐ Competing interests, funding, authorship contribution, and data availability are disclosed.
- ☐ AI Use Disclosure is included and accurately describes any material AI assistance.
- ☐ At least 80% of references are scholarly peer-reviewed journal articles.
- ☐ References are from the last five (5) years, except justified essential older sources.
- ☐ References are complete, accurate, consistently formatted, and match in-text citations.
- ☐ DOI information is supplied/verified where available.
- ☐ Manuscript has not been submitted simultaneously to another journal.
