

Summer 2024 Assignment for Rising Juniors (Part II)

NY Times Argumentative Writing Prompts

Choose one of the topics and respond to the accompanying prompts (listed at the end of each article in bullet points) in the space provided below. You may respond to each prompt individually or write a single response that addresses all of the prompts within it. Be sure to align your response to the rubric below.

Article Title:
Article Link:
Prompts:	Copy and paste the prompts here for reference!
Response

Rubric

Criteria	4	3	2	1	Feedback/Comments
Viewpoint: Response states a clear opinion and issues a call to action through argument based on evidence.
Evidence: Response uses compelling evidence to support the opinion, and cites reliable sources.
Analysis and Persuasion: Response convincingly argues point of view by providing relevant background information, using valid examples, acknowledging counter-claims, and developing claims -- all in a clear and organized fashion.
Required Elements: All required elements are included.
Language: Editorial has a strong voice and engages the reader. It uses language, style and tone appropriate to its purpose and features correct grammar, spelling and punctuation					