

T/5 Clarence H. Pine

Location - West-A: R35, C24

Joseph M. Pine, 100 Monroe avenue, has received word that his son, Pvt. First Class Clarence H. Pine of the ordnance department, is stationed on New Hebrides island. He wrote his father of his Christmas dinner of turkey, with all the trimmings, and indicated that on that day he was awarded a pin for two years of service. He also wrote of having met on Oshkosh friend, William Holtz, officer in the air corps, stationed a short distance from him, with whom he had Christmas dinner.

J. M. Pine, 100 Monroe avenue, has received word from his son, Pvt, First Class Clarence H. Pine, that he is now stationed at Camp Edwards, Mass., where he is located with a hospital train detachment. Private Pine recently spent about three weeks at his home here after spending 30 months in the Pacific area. Previous to going to Camp Edwards, he was stationed at Durham, N. C., and Fort Devens, Mass.

Information has been received by J. M. Pine, 100 Monroe avenue, that his son, Clarence H. Pine of the 58th ordnance company, Raritan arsenal, Metuchen, N. J., has been transferred to Camp Dix, N. J. While Clarence was visiting in New York City Tuesday he met Kenneth Oaks of Oshkosh. He also attended the Roxy theater and in the newsreel saw the Oshkosh All Stars winning the world's professional basketball championship from the Detroit Eagles in the tournament at Chicago. His letter home expressed surprise and pleasure in two contacts with Oshkosh on the same day, although a long distance from this city.

Clarence Pine, son of Joseph Pine, 100 Monroe avenue, formerly stationed at Aberdeen proving ground, Md., has been transferred to 58th ordnance company at Raritan arsenal, Metuchen, N. J.

T/5 Clarence H. Pine, 98 Monroe avenue, was with the 1963rd unit service command, medical department, and won the Asiatic-Pacific theater service ribbon, good conduct medal, unit citation, American theater service ribbon, victory medal, four overseas service bars and one service stripe. He enlisted Nov. 18, 1941.
