

GROW GROUP QUESTIONS

Announcement: Men – Our No Regrets Mens Conference is next week, Feb 7th. Sign up here so you don't miss it.

Opening Prayer Prompts For Group:

P-Praise God for being holy, sovereign, and unshaken. Even when the world feels chaotic.

R-Repent by confessing the ways you've cooperated with "Babylon" because it felt safer, easier, or more rewarding.

A-Ask for courage to remain faithful when following Jesus costs you something.

Y-Yield by surrendering your wants that Babylon can fulfill. Offer your loyalty again to God and the Lamb – declaring, "You alone are worthy." (Can close in worship here as well)

Ice Breaker: What's something you've been loyal to in your life (a team, company, relationship, habit) and what earned that loyalty?

The Sermon – Read Revelation 4

- Why do you think John begins the action of Revelation not with chaos on earth, but with order and worship in heaven?
- What would this vision of God's throne have communicated to Christians living under another king's rule? Why does this tell us today?
- How does worship help us see the world more clearly?

Going Deeper – Read Revelation 5

- John hears about a Lion, but sees a slaughtered Lamb. Why do you think this contrast matters?
- How does Jesus' way of finding victory for God's Kingdom differ from Rome's way of finding victory? What does this tell us about Christian living?
- The message reminds us that followers of Jesus must possess absolute loyalty to God and the Lamb. What competes most strongly for that loyalty in your life today?

Closing Prayer/Worship – Pray the answers to these questions aloud as worship.

- In Revelation 4, what makes God worthy of worship? (Creator, eternal, in control)
- In Revelation 5, what makes the Lamb worthy? (Sacrifice, redemption, justice)
