3. HOW I WORK ON COMMISSIONS

- I can work with text descriptions, but it's your responsibility to make it as accurate as possible

3.1 SKETCH

- After we discuss the commission idea and price, you send me 50% of payment and I start sketching. After the sketch is done, I'll send it to you for confirmation. If everything is OK, I proceed to the next phase and you send the rest 50% of payment. Free fixes: no limits

3.2 LINEART

- At this phase I clean up the sketch, do lines, add details. After it's done - I send it to you for approval. Once approved I proceed to coloring.

Free fixes: 4

So, PLEASE, try to give me proper descriptions and references.*

- At this phase I start putting base colors on characters and BG, as well as work on their markings. After it's done - I send it to you for approval. Once approved I proceed to rendering.

Free fixes: 2 for major changes

NOTE: If a character has a complex design/complex fur pattern/complex clothes print and you decide to change it drastically, this is considered to be MAJOR change.

NOTE 2: This is the last phase where any changes are allowed (unless it's my mistake that needs fixing)

! If you go over said limit EACH fix will cost you +25% of total price

3.4 RENDERING

- This is the final phase. Here I work with lighting, textures etc. At this phase I can add some not essential details, like magical glow, glitters and etc.

ANY fixes: N/A (unless it's my mistake that needs fixing)

4. ART USAGE

4.1 For Client

- You can freely post it on any platforms, social media and etc. for personal use, but with quoting me as an author of the picture (linking back to my page would be nice as well)
- You can print it on any surface , clothes, coffee mugs and etc, but for PERSONAL USE only
- You're not allowed to use art, even with quoting me as an author, for COMMERCIAL USE (example: mass production of t-shirts with art)
- You're not allowed to sell art
 - Under NO circumstances are my artworks to be used in the minting of NTFs. If you commission me and do that, I reserve the right to file a takedown request on it as well.
 - In case you violate “No NTF usage” I have a licensing fee of 300 000$ on those NTF transactions if my art ends up being used as an NTF. If above 300 000$, - 99.99% of those transactions.

4.2 For artist

- I have the right to post and publish finished commission wherever I please (unless it's private. If you make private commission public yourself, means that I can do so as well)
- If the commission involves a copyrighted character (your OC/fursona) I will mark it and you as the characters' owner. I will, as well, post links to your webpage/profile/group. I owe rights to the illustration, NOT your characters
- If I'm unable to deliver your commission in time I will refund you according to paragraph 5.

- If you decided to cancel the commission AFTER payment, but BEFORE I began to work on it, you will receive 100% (minus PayPal fee, due to me living outside US)

 - Lineart phase- 60%
 - Coloring phase - 40%

NOTE: Total % of the refund will depend on how much work was done and is discussed with the Client.

6. Reasons why I may DECLINE to work on your commission

- In case we can not come to agreement (and in cases of you being rude: harassment, threats, insults, asking to lower my prices, planning to use art as NTF)
- In cases you ask me to draw something I'm uncomfortable with or find offensive
- If there is too much fixes

If you have any more questions left, don't be afraid to contact me.

Thank you!
