Committees composed of highly qualified and trained librarians choose developmentally appropriate titles for MASL Readers Award and Readers Lists based on professional judgment, notable book review sources and publisher information. Even so, every librarian has a professional responsibility to make thoughtful decisions about all books selected for their library to ensure they curate collections that align with their district's policies and the needs of their school community.

Mark Twain Award Reading Program
Official Tally Sheet
2025-2026

Voting Procedure

Who May Vote – Missouri students who have read or have had read to them at least four of the nominated titles.

Voting Deadlines - Online voting will begin March 1, 2026, and close at 11:59pm on March 20, 2026.

Voting Procedure – Each student may vote once for one title. Each school administers its own ballot. MASL has ballots available on its website, however schools may design their own ballots.

Each school tallies the total votes for titles on this sheet in the space to the left, indicating the number of individual votes each book received. Once vote totals are tallied, totals for each title are submitted by schools via a link on the MASL website homepage.
