TTSTCANDI Chart

T	Theme: Naiveté often distorts the truth. Some people actually prefer their distorted versions over reality.
T	Title: How does the title enhance Munro's theme? Predict what it means at the beginning and, after you are done reading, compare your thoughts to what you had originally predicted.
S	Syntax: When Edie is trying on the dress (paragraph 30), what type of sentence is used most often? What emotions do the sentences enhance/develop?
T	Tone: What are two tones carried throughout the text? What specific word/phrase choice create the tones? How are they developed? How do they enhance the theme?
C	Characters: Analyze the following. Some you will base on description, name, and behavior. ● Edie: ● Chris Watters: ● Dr. Peeples: ● Mrs. Peeples: ● Allice Kelling: ● Loretta Bird:

A	Analogical Language: What is their importance and how do they enhance the theme? ● Red: ● Yellow: ● Screen door: ● Sun glasses: ● Bluish green: ● White ● Blinds: ● Smoke: ● Plane: ● Mail: ● Fifteen: ● Mirror:
N	Narrative Technique: What type of narrator? Who is the narrator? Is the narrator the same as the character? How does the narrator enhance the theme?
D	Diction: ● Trend: ● Differently: ● First: ● Shining: ● Girl: ● Mixed-up: ● Blinds:
I	Imagery: ● Opening scene: ● Trying on Mrs. Peeples' clothes: ● Meeting Chris for the first time: ● Eating outside: ● Closing image:
