

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Hey, have you heard about the Festival of Lights happening this weekend? I think we should go check it out, it sounds amazing with all the light art and fireworks displays.</li> <li>• But I think it is a unique and visually stunning event that showcases the beauty of the city through light art and multimedia displays. I guess it's worth visiting! And it's free to enter, so we won't have to worry about spending money.</li> <li>...</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• I'm not sure about that, it sounds like it could be an ordinary event and nothing special. Plus, I'm not the one who is interested in art or light installations. They make me bored, recently I've visited a festival like that.</li> <li>• Frankly speaking, I'm not a fan of staying out that late. Also, I guess my parents will worry.</li> </ul> What else could you suggest? ...
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• I've got one more idea. Let's visit the International hot dog eating contest. It's a fun and unique event with live bands and great food. The pre-contest entertainment, including trampoline and acrobat shows, will create a really exciting atmosphere of the event.</li> <li>• I see your point, but the hot dog eating contest is a world-famous event with a record of 62 hot dogs in 10 minutes. It could be a once in a lifetime experience to witness and the variety of food options, including hot dogs and other festival treats, make this festival a great place to indulge in some delicious treats.</li> <li>• Then, maybe you have any ideas?</li> </ul>	I think a lot of people will come to this festival, it will be overcrowded, noisy and difficult to navigate, and I prefer quieter and more peaceful events. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Maybe, you are right that does sound pretty impressive although I don't want to watch people stuff their faces with hot dogs, and I find the concept of a hot dog eating contest to be unhealthy and unappetizing.</li> <li>• I'm not sure...</li> </ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Lizard Championship? I haven't heard anything about such an event.</li> <li>• I have to admit, the idea of watching lizards race does sound intriguing. Plus, the live music and great food make it even more appealing.</li> <li>• You're absolutely right, we will. It seems like the most exciting option out of the three ones.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Why don't we visit the Lizard Racing Championship?</li> <li>• It is a unique and quirky event that offers a different kind of entertainment for those looking for something out of the ordinary. ... I'm sure we enjoy!</li> <li>• I know you love live music. So, we surely enjoy this festival!</li> </ul>
Of course, with pleasure.	Let's go to the café and find out details of this festival.
