Summer Reading Program

National Louis University
Center for Literacy

The Center for Literacy at National Louis University is offering a Summer Reading Program. This program is designed to help students who are experiencing reading and/or writing difficulties. The tutors are licensed teachers who are earning their graduate degree as a Reading Specialist. Highly qualified university faculty and staff will supervise the tutors. Students receive one-to-one tutoring in reading and writing one hour per day, four mornings per week, for five weeks. Please note, this year's program will consist of an on-campus and a virtual option. Both options will follow the schedule below.

Dates: Monday, June 29 through Thursday, July 30, 2026

Note: Children must attend each day for all five weeks.

Weekly Session Dates:

Week One: Monday, June 29 through Thursday, July 2

Week Two: Monday, July 6 through Thursday, July 9

Week Three: Monday, July 13 through Thursday, July 16

Week Four: Monday, July 20 through Thursday, July 23

Week Five: Monday, July 27 through Thursday, July 30

Times: 8:30 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. (Session 1) OR 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. (Session 2)

Place: National Louis University – Wheeling Campus – 1000 Capitol Drive
- and -
Online

For: Students entering grades one through twelve (in Fall of 2026) who are experiencing difficulty in the areas of reading and writing.

Cost: $200.00 program fee paid within 7 days of acceptance email. Partial scholarships available based on need.

Attendance: Because this is a teaching program, attendance for all scheduled sessions on the above dates and times is mandatory. No changes to the schedule can be made.
