Please do not make direct requests/invitations/solicitations to individuals unless they expressly request it.

The Weekly Spark from Jill Dryer, SparkScribe

NEW from BLAZER Jordan Aragon

Jordan's Zine, Day's End, is not available for purchase. If you are interested in procuring your own copy of this limited edition print, please fill out this form. And if owning this stunning piece of art wasn't reason enough, you're also supporting an amazing cause. 100% of the proceeds from Day's End will be donated to The Sylvia Rivera Law Project.

And if you're in New York City on October 11, mark your calendars and come support Jordan at The New York Queer Zine Fair at The Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual & Transgender Community Center.

NEW from alum Wes Day

Wes Day, NYC's only Certified Ross Instructor®, will be offering classes in the Patron's Lounge inside New York's historic Town Hall Theater. There will be four classes offered during the month of August: August 4, 11, 18, and 25, each beginning at 6:30pm.

Let's paint some happy little trees, fluffy clouds and majestic mountains just like Bob Ross! Students receive step-by-step instructions to complete a landscape oil painting using the tools and techniques demonstrated on the hit TV series, "The Joy of Painting."

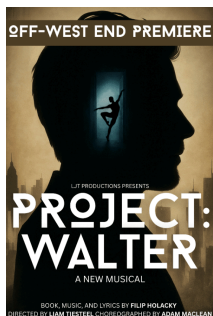

You will be amazed by the results you can achieve with a few simple colors and a few simple steps. All supplies are included! Canvases. Paints. Brushes. Aprons. And a special 'to go' box to transport your art work to its new home!

Bring a friend. Bring a date. Bring a beverage!

From alum Filip Holacky

Tickets are now on sale for Project: Walter, a new musical with book, music, and lyrics by Filip Holacky. Not only will this be Filip's off-West End debut as a composer, this will also be his first London theatre credit as musical director! And did we mention, he also just got accepted into the Writing for Performance graduate extension program at Juilliard?!

For more information and to purchase tickets, please click here. And be sure to follow along for updates on the Project: Walter Instagram account.

From alum Juliane Godfrey

Juliane recently finished a run of The Wedding Singer at The Colony Theatre in Burbank, where she played Holly. From StageRow.com: "The other standout is Juliane Godfrey, who steals scene after scene as Julia's saucier, take-no-prisoners BFF!"

The Wedding Singer turned out to be a bit of a reunion for some other Sparklers, as Erin Kane, Sarah Lappanio, and Njeri Njuhigu attended together to cheer on Juliane!

From Team Captain Kevin Winebold

Kevin returns to The Green Room 42 with a brand-new installment of his Kevin on the Keys series. In Main Character Energy, our BroadwayWorld-hailed “one-man orchestra” steps fully into the spotlight for a celebration of standing center stage in your own story. Blending virtuosic piano solos, sharp humor, laugh-out-loud charm, spirited tap dancing, and a touch of magic—all grounded in genuine connection and vulnerability—Kevin invites you into an evening of music, mischief, and the joyful power of being unapologetically yourself.

In-person tickets are available here, and livestream tickets are available here.

From alum Mark Lingenfelter

Mark has just finished writing his solo show!

He was able to get some helpful feedback from two playwrights who were in attendance at The ILLUME Showcase.

He took their insight and got right to work, and now - it is ready to submit!

From alum Anne-Marie Pietersma

Culture Magazine just released their 2025 Hot List of 20 cheese people to know and Ann-Marie is one of them!

Each year, Culture solicits nominations from the cheese community for their annual Hot List - a directory of cheese professionals setting the industry ablaze with commitment to craft!

You can view the Hot List right here!
