

Privacy Policy — Gurbani Ghar

Last updated: 1 August 2026

The short version: Gurbani Ghar collects no personal data. There are no accounts, no analytics, no advertising, and no tracking of any kind. Everything you do in the app stays on your device.

Information We Collect

None. Gurbani Ghar does not collect, store, transmit, sell, or share any personal information. The app has no login, no user accounts, and no analytics or advertising SDKs.

Data Stored on Your Device

Your preferences (language, dark mode, notification time, saved quotes, reading positions, course progress) and any downloaded Bani text or audio are stored only in the app's private storage on your own device. They are never uploaded anywhere and are deleted when you uninstall the app.

Internet Access

The app connects to the internet only to fetch devotional content for display and playback:

- BaniDB API (banidb.com) — Gurbani text, translations, and the daily Hukamnama;
- SGPC audio servers (sgpc.net) — live Kirtan, Hukamnama audio, and Katha streams from Sri Harmandir Sahib;
- Audio seva websites (gurbanischool.com, dhansikhi.com, parmashardwar.in) — recorded Path audio for the Nitnem banis.

These are standard content requests (like a web browser loading a page). Gurbani Ghar sends them no personal information. Each service may see your IP address as part of normal internet operation, governed by their own policies.

Permissions We Use, and Why

- Internet — fetch Gurbani text and stream audio;

- Notifications — your daily Hukamnama reminder, generated locally on your device;
- Alarms & reminders — deliver that daily notification at your chosen exact time;
- Run at startup — re-arm your daily notification after the phone reboots;
- Foreground media service — keep Kirtan and Path audio playing with the screen off.

Children

The app is suitable for all ages and, as stated above, collects no data from anyone, including children.

Changes to This Policy

If this policy ever changes, the updated version will be posted at this address with a new date above.
