

APPN Study Day

'Advancing Physiotherapy - Managing Complexity'

Friday 15th of November 2024

Venue: Station meeting space, Millennium Point, Curzon Street, Birmingham, B4 7XG

This study day is designed for advanced and aspiring advanced physiotherapy practitioners eager to enhance their expertise in complex clinical reasoning and expand their professional network across the UK.

9.30 -10.00 am	Registration
10.00 - 10.05 am	Welcome
10.05- 10.35 am	Complex clinical reasoning- managing complexity and uncertainty. Dr. Neil Langridge, Consultant Physiotherapist MSK
10.35- 11.35 am	Advanced Practitioner complex case presentations Silver Trauma Oliver Chillcott, Major Trauma Therapy Lead Managing complexity in the Emergency Department Vicki Currie, APP ED Spinal infection Tom Watt, Consultant Physio in Spines Complexity and clinical reasoning in Rheumatology, Gary McCall, Rheumatology APP
11.45- 12.15	Break
12.15 -1.00 pm	Aspirations for advanced practice across the four Nations in relation to the changing models of NHS care Esther Clift, Consultant Physiotherapist for Frailty

	Managing Complexity – Hospital at Home Rachel Jackson, Consultant Practitioner (developmental) NHS@Home-Virtual Wards
1.00 -2.00 pm	Lunch/networking meet CoP leads.
2.00-2.30 pm	Public health/ Population health/ Health inequalities/ Social prescribing Ms Humera Sultan (Public Health Consultant, Birmingham City Council)
2.30-3.00 pm	Non-medical Prescribing and Advanced Physiotherapy Practice Paul Regan, MSK APP APP NMP developmental journey in a pain service. Alex Deutsch, APP in Pain
3.00- 3.30 pm	Rapid 5s Advice and Guidance Requests directed to the EKHUFT Spinal Advanced Practice Therapy Team: A service evaluation. Helen Oakes Cauda Equina Screening in Physiotherapy: A qualitative study into the cultural experience of Pakistani interpreters. Damien Kimber Exploring Islamic Faith and MSK Management. Louise Brown CAT project – Using a CAT in MSK Physiotherapy: Exercise for Chronic Low Back Pain. Roza Haiduk How can self-efficacy, self-management and self-management support be optimized for people with progressive neurological conditions using community rehabilitation and support services? Katherine Jackson

3.30- 4.00 pm	Break
4.00 - 4.30 pm	Post –colonial thinking in healthcare. Jai Mistry, APP
4.30- 5.00pm	APPN network updates / AGM
5.00 pm	Close