

About me...

I am originally from the island of St. Lucia in the caribbean and I grew up in New York. I did my undergraduate studies, my Bachelor's Degree at the State University of New York in Long Island, New York. I later went on to do my master's Degree at the University of Salamanca in Spain.

I have been teaching Spanish for over 20 years. I have taught mostly on the High School level at Atlanta Public Schools, Fulton County Public Schools and Clayton County Public Schools. Also, I've taught on the college level at Clayton State University, Georgia Perimeter College, Morris Brown College and Clark Atlanta University.

Additionally, I have participated in several study abroad/cultural immersion/travel abroad programs in Puerto Rico, Dominican Republic, Colombia, Mexico, Peru and Ecuador. I am married with an 11 year old son and I enjoy traveling to different places around the country and around the world. Finally, I am extremely passionate about teaching spanish and I am always excited to share my knowledge and experience with my students.

Oh.....Did I mention that I love the beach!
