Utah Fits All – What It’s Already Done for Families

Since launching, the Utah Fits All Scholarship has made a real and tangible difference for families across Utah — including many right here at UBCA. For some families, it has meant being able to afford private Christian education when it previously felt out of reach. For others, it has provided meaningful support for homeschool curriculum, tutoring, therapies, and specialized learning resources. It has reduced financial pressure for single-income households and military families and created flexibility so parents can choose the educational path that best fits their child — without being limited by their zip code.

At UBCA specifically, we’ve seen the impact firsthand.

In the 2024–2025 school year, 24 out of 96 full-time enrolled students were Utah Fits All recipients — that’s 25% of our student body.

For 2025–2026, 46 out of 113 full-time students are currently receiving Utah Fits All funds — which is just over 40% of our enrolled students.

That’s a significant increase in just one year. For many families, this scholarship hasn’t just been helpful — it has been the reason their student could stay at UBCA or receive the support they truly needed. It has opened doors and removed barriers in a very real way.

Vendor / Provider Portal (Odyssey – Official Program Manager)

Odyssey UFA Vendor Application

- The vendor/provider application portal for the Utah Fits All Scholarship officially launched on June 11, 2025. This is the gateway for vendors, service providers, and schools to register and begin the process of becoming approved providers in the UFA marketplace.

How to Register

- You can create a provider account and start your vendor/provider application anytime at the Odyssey registration portal here:
<https://ufa-vendors.withodyssey.com/registration/>
- After registering, you can submit your business info and offerings for review. Odyssey reviews each vendor/provider and each submitted offering for eligibility before anything goes live.

Portal Access Rather Than Closed Dates

- Unlike the student scholarship application (which has set open/close dates), the vendor/provider portal remains open continuously so providers can apply any time during the year (subject to Odyssey's review and compliance).

What About the UEFA Organization?

- Utah Education Fits All (UEFA) is a non-profit advocacy group, not the official Program Manager for UFA. They provide community support, events, and information for families and providers, but they do not operate the vendor application portal itself.
 - UEFA has hosted vendor fairs and networking events in the past, but they do not set formal portal open dates—those come from Odyssey, the official administering platform.

Summary of Vendor Portal Timing

Provider/Vendor application launched: June 11, 2025 (Odyssey vendor portal)

Portal status: Open continuously for new vendor/provider registrations and applications (no fixed “window close date”)

After approval: Providers can submit offerings to the Odyssey marketplace for parent/student use (following review/approval).

If you’re planning to register as a vendor/provider:

1. Start by creating an account at the Odyssey vendor registration page.
2. Prepare required documents like business licenses or IRS docs to complete your application.
3. Odyssey will review your submission; once approved, you can begin adding offerings to the UFA marketplace.

Updates on HB467Sub5 (3/6/26)

Utah Fits All Update – HB467 (Latest Changes)

As the legislative session comes to a close, HB467: Utah Fits All Scholarship Program Modifications was updated again and passed on the Senate floor with a 19–10 vote. The newest version (Substitute 5) has now been sent back to the House for final approval.

To help families understand what this means, here is a simple breakdown of what changed and what did not.

What the Bill Focuses On

The bill mainly works to clarify program rules and strengthen oversight of the Utah Fits All scholarship. The goal is to ensure the program continues long-term while maintaining accountability for scholarship funds.

Private School Definition

The bill clarifies what qualifies as a private school within the program. Schools must function as a primary place of education with organized instruction, curriculum, and student progress monitoring.

Accreditation Discussions

Earlier versions of the bill proposed stricter accreditation requirements for private schools. The newest version removes immediate accreditation mandates and instead continues discussions on how accreditation may be addressed in the future.

Tuition Transparency

Participating schools must clearly publish tuition rates, fees, and refund policies and apply them consistently to all families.

Student Eligibility Clarifications

The bill clarifies age eligibility and other administrative details to make the program easier to manage and understand.

No Immediate Changes for Current Families

For families currently using the scholarship, nothing about funding amounts or eligibility changes right now. The scholarship still provides:

- $8,000 for private school students
- $4,000–$6,000 for home-based students

Program Stability

The overall intent of the bill is to protect and stabilize the program long term, ensuring Utah families continue to have access to educational choice.

Bottom Line:

The Utah Fits All program continues moving forward. Most of the changes focus on clarifying rules and improving oversight, not reducing scholarships or removing families from the program.
