Do Now:

How would you define a good job? What are the characteristics of a good job?

Career Research

College:

- 1) Out of the colleges you applied to, choose the one you are the most excited to attend
- 2) Search for the majors available at this college
- 3) Pick a major from the list and search for careers available with that major. Review the job requirements and salary.

Pro-Pathway:

Research careers within your pro-pathway.

For example, if you are pursuing a plumbing certification - you can research average salaries in your area and the job requirements
