Andrew Noot, Mustang of the Week

Congratulations to Andrew Noot, our Mustang of the Week. Ms. Richards, his language arts teacher, nominated him. This is what she had to say about Andrew:

“Andrew Noot is one of the kindest and most compassionate students you will meet. He consistently looks for ways to help others, whether in class, as a peer tutor, or in the hallway. Andrew is especially mindful of those around him and watches out for his peers, making sure others feel supported and included. His kind heart and willingness to help continue to impress those who work with him.” - Ms. Richards

Andrew's favorite subject is gym. He loves playing basketball and is a big BYU fan. For being selected as Mustang of the Week, Andrew gets a voucher to Cafe Rio, a candy bar, and a Mustang of the Week t-shirt. Congratulations Andrew!

Millcreek Academic Team (DAL) Smashes Farmington JH and South Davis JH.

The Davis Academic League (DAL) season kicked off this week, and Millcreek Junior High opened the year in impressive fashion as they began defending last season's DAL title against Farmington Junior High.

Congratulations to the Millcreek Junior High Academic League team on their decisive 74–29 victory over Farmington. The team showed strong preparation, teamwork, and focus throughout the competition.

A special congratulations to Spencer Griffith, who led the team as the high scorer in the 1st quarter, 4th quarter, and overall for the match. Congratulations as well to Cole Grant, who was the high scorer for the 3rd quarter. Millcreek's strong 3rd quarter featured a winning presentation on cashless societies that set the tone for the season.

The team hosted its first home meet against rival South Davis Junior High on Tuesday, January 20, and came away with an outstanding win. Every student who participated did an incredible job and demonstrated impressive knowledge throughout the competition. Our 3rd quarter team also delivered an exceptional presentation on Theme Parks, showcasing creativity and strong communication skills.

This week they look forward to traveling and taking on Bountiful Junior High on January 27th. Best of luck to our team!

Go MUSTANGS!

Girls' Basketball Rides a Four-Game Win Streak

Last week, our outstanding Girls' Basketball team faced two tough opponents and came away with two impressive victories.

On Tuesday, the Lady Mustangs traveled to North Layton Junior High and took care of business with a strong performance. Then on Thursday, they went head-to-head with a talented Farmington team in a hard-fought contest that stayed close from start to finish. In the end, our Lady Mustangs pulled away for a well-earned 35–28 win.

The team carried that momentum into last week's games as they hosted South Davis Junior High on Tuesday, January 20, securing another solid win. They followed it up with a strong performance on the road at Bountiful Junior High on Thursday, January 22, showing Farmington they came to compete with an impressive 41–20 victory.

They're on a roll, and we're hoping to see that energy continue into this week's matchups. We'll be hosting Centerville Junior High on January 27 and traveling to Mueller Park Junior High on January 29.

Our girls are currently tied for 3rd place overall with Horizon Junior High, each holding a record of 7 wins and 2 losses.
