Database Article Portfolio Piece

Step 1: Identify
Identify one of the main conflicts in your novel and use that to come up with a claim. (Remember what we did on the lesson day with Of Mice and Men).

Conflict in your novel:
_____

Claim: Write this in the first box of the chart below.

Step 2: Connect
Choose an era/ism where you feel this idea might fit and justify why you chose that era/ism by filling in the appropriate boxes in the chart below.

Claim	Era / Ism	Related Ideals	Justification How do you see this idea in a text from the era/ism?

Step 3: Find an Article

- Using the "find a database" tab on the learning commons website (I would suggest using the MAS - Ultra School Edition) find the article you believe will support your claim.
- Choose two pieces of evidence and record them in the chart.
- Explain how the article relates to the conflict claim you made about your book.

Your chart is on the back of this page.

Article Title	Citation Hint: Done properly, this is NOT simply a copy of the URL.	2 Pieces of Evidence These will be DIRECT QUOTES.
		1. 2.

Article Summary

Deep Connection to Your Novel of Choice